Lives of great men all remind us,
  We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us,
  Footprints on the sands of time.

Footprints, that perhaps another,
  Sailing o’er life’s solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
  Seeing, shall take heart again.

—LONGFELLOW.

Is there a single one of us who does not long to have his religion real? I was shocked, and host, and angry, and resentful one day last spring when I heard that one of my fellow missionaries don't rate this down now - wait till the time you want to use it.

Listening. We have all protested that we must and it depend on the guidance of God - we pray for it then take no time to January 16. Listen to it honestly - We think if we ask

In guidance, that thoughts will be given to us in the midst of the strain and stress of all the work - and they will but how much more if we definitely set ourselves to listen.

Y. P. What something real - Can I give it to them? I should say, can God use me to give it to them?

1. "I pray for them."
2. Pray definitely - for the A.E. fellowship; for students; for teachers; for long years; for fellow-missionaries.

It is definiteness that counts.

1. "That they may be one."
2. If the workers could have been one China would have been won long ago.

How are we going to be made one? Are we willing?

When we pray for a thing we must be willing to do something about it.

What know we greater than the soul? On God and Godlike men we build our trust. Matt 7:7d.
Aug 1. "Knock, and the door will open to you." Matt 7: 8a

What door? The door to greater usefulness, to helping whom? Helping everyone who comes in contact with me if he needs my help. How shall I know whether he needs any help I can give him? Look at him trying to understand him, and listen for God's voice and lead me what to do.

What door does the Lord want me to knock at today? He will lead you to each door as it comes until He does - use your time and energy in getting rest and refreshment in preparation for the fall's work.

"Why are you afraid? You have so little faith. Matt. 26. Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief."

I say that I have made complete surrender. What, then, is lacking? Make my surrender complete, and real. Lord, I surrender all.

Nothing is beautiful from every point of view. Horace Aug 3. Do the next thing. If you hold anything out on God you may be hindering some one else.

"You shall find it just as you believe." Matt 9: 29

Aug 4. (The weather is still rainy.) He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she rose and ministered unto them. Matt 8: 15

February 11

It suddenly dawned upon me that "Come unto me, all of you who toil and are burdened" does not fit my case very often, as I have thought it did. To mine is a life of ease and comfort compared with many many lives. I only think I toil, when I have rushed myself into a fury of action. I am not really burdened - only think.

Even those who strive to be perfect stand in need of reproof. Mencius
February 12

I am when in reality by far the heaviest end of the "burden" is
1. self-imposed worry; or a piled-up "mountain of things to be done" which God never intended me to do; or things He does intend me to do which have been crowded off the stage until the eleventh hour by trifles He didn't want me to waste my time on!

Aug 6. All praise to Him who rules above.

"And He did not do many wonders there, because of their want of faith."

Aug 7. God is almost pulling me into this lady - almost against my will.

"Why did you want? you have so little faith"
February 14

Aug 8. "If any one wants to go with me, he must disregard himself and take his cross and follow me."

Am I groping for the better—the best way of life because of the love of God in my heart, or because I am changing so deeply for peace, poise, and an utterly ordered and controlled life? (No—because He is leading)

February 15

(In the afternoon of Aug 8, 1932)

At the cottage of Betty Williams, I offered a prayer of surrender of my life to God. I still do not feel that God will want me to arrange my life just as Betty Williams arranged hers—but in this final (of three) talks with her I could see no reason for making another surrender to God—since I know that that is never a wrong thing to do!

Being myself not stranger to suffering I have learned to relieve the suffering of others.

Virgil
February 16.

a real one - the chief difference between it and the many previous ones is being giving up my own to God to use if he wants me to use them to help others and not taking the words 'as far as possible' at the end - I am to expect that God will use me, will take away the wrong things, will change me - witnessing is a question on which I must do some intensive work in 'listening'.

February 17

Aug. 9 (disjointed, junction union)

Words from Prof. Scott's lecture last night.

"Whoever loses his life for me will find it."

A surrender of one's life to God means giving it him one's time - every penny - every talent (?) - every thought - worries - work - food - clothes - every bit of ability - books - recreation - friendships - everything - and not say "Is it possible?"

The sun, too, shines into cesspools, and is not polluted. Diogenes Laertius

"And is it possible?", but "Thus God finds my life for me!"
Feb 18

49th Day

Aug 10. If He wants me to do all these things, He will show me that He does — (and He will give peace.)

“...For His divine power has given us every requisite for life and piety.

“I know Whom I have trusted and I am certain He is able to keep what I have put into His hands till the great day.”

Feb 19

50th Day

Today I am to give Him my worries — such as tormented me last night, as why do I have to follow B. W. ‘s guidance? Why do I have to surrender to B. W.? The answer is — I don’t have to — I have to follow God’s guidance — surrender to God. I have done that. Well what are you fussing about then?

If you would have a faithful servant and one that you like, serve yourself.
Benjamin Franklin
Aug. 11. (After you have been graduated from middle school you'll have to speak English better than this!) From Ed. ass. yesterday.

"But whoever hinders one of these children who believe in me might better have a great millstone hung around his neck and be sunk in the open sea." Matt 14:16

"I know whom I have trusted and I am certain He is able to keep what I have put into His hands until the great day."

Today I have to give to Him all feelings of rebellion and resentment as soon as I begin to sense them coming. Thank Him for friendships, sunlight, and all the big and little joys of life. Answer: "I have taken these rebellions feeling away. You are resting in peace and quietness and joyful praise this very moment."

God's in his heaven—All's right with the world.

Robert Browning

(And it's true.)
February 22

Aug. 12. Lord, my life I re-dedicate to Thee; all there is in me I again re-consecrate to Thee.

"Everything you pray for with faith, you will obtain."

"I know Whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I've committed unto Him, against that day."

Aug. 13. All not part.

"You must love the Lord your God with your whole heart, your whole soul, and your whole mind."

"I will give you a new nature, and I will put a new spirit into you; I will take away your hard nature and give you a nature that can be touched; I will put my own spirit within you. I will make you live by my laws, and you shall obey and observe my orders."

"Mine iniquities have taken hold of me so that I am not able to look up, they are more than the hairs of my head."

"My soul thirsteth for God," May God give you that consolation which is beyond all earthly power.

Lincoln
Feb. 24

Aug. 14 - What is there in your life still that ought not to be there? (my hypocritical attitudes, pharisaism)

But alas for you — for you lock the doors of the kingdom of heaven in men’s faces, for you will neither go in yourselves nor let those enter who are trying to do so.

"O Lord open then my lips and my mouth shall show forth thy praise."

Aug. 15. Still rebelling about other people being guided as to what I shall do.

"There is a new creation whenever a man comes to be in Christ: what is old has gone, the new has come. It is all the doing of God who reconciled me to Himself through Christ and has permitted me to be a minister of His reconciliation."

"Then what am I to do with Jesus?"

I have big things to do this day. What are they? Get down to bedrock on this matter of fellowship. I thought my surrender was complete the other day, but there still remain being proud of my reputation in regard to ignorance of truth is the cause of all misery. Buddha
February 26

Having a good disposition!
Being easy to get along with!
Being tactful! Knowing how to approach people!
Working sixteen hours a day!
Getting along better than — with P. P.!

These things are hard for me to give up.

It is very hard for me to see that God wants me to give them up yet they are what come into my mind to show me how different I am from those who have undertaken the New King.

February 27

Also:

Get rid of prejudice of B. W.’s her dominancy.
Fear of mentioning fellowship to people I think will laugh at me or despise me for being in it.

Come to an understanding with God (!) about His guiding other people in regard to what I ought to do!

“I’ve had guidance that you ought to have a change in next week’s meeting.”

“I’ve had guidance that you ought to speak to the people in your house.”

To err is human, to forgive divine.

Pope
February 28

Aug 16. God Help me. "Stop all fussing"

Pride — of good disposition of having good judgment of being a reasonable person of being tactful
of making long term of being too sensible to jump into such a one sided thing as the ...group must be!

(These things are hindering you) of being right on triple points etc — (That's not all, by a long shot)

"Come, follow me, and I will make you fish for men."

Fear of what people will say.

Why wasn't I willing to tell
K. where I was going that a.m.?

(fear of ridicule)

Aug 17 The paralytic was healed. My spiritual life has been paralyzed—I had good impulses, but couldn’t or didn’t follow them. Most of my good impulses died before they had breathed more than once. This ought not to keep on happening. Laziness & fear of results.

“...My daughter, it is your faith that has cured you. Go in peace and be free from your disease...” Mark 5:34

“Do not be afraid, just have faith.”

April 2

Good impulses die, doesn’t that mean that I have been disobedient to guidance? What if there is not time in a day to do all that I am guided to do? Either I have been frittering away my time in useless things or I must learn to say “...My times are in Thy hands.”

Aug 18 Little girl, get up— I have been literally dead— spending most of my time “credit-snatching” and “blame avoiding”.

Reasonableness & Simplicity of the Way

Is this another war that will take us away from the church?

We are getting a new idea of God getting to know Him in a different way.
We must face the next step.

We are witnesses, expensive ones.
What have we got to show for it?

Am I living a surrendered life?
Am I able to face sickness, death.

Etc, as a Christian should face things.

Easy open feeling—having them feel to ask questions.

What will the Church do?
The Church will the teach the truth not a case of putting up defense for self.

Dec. 30 "I live, yet as longer I,
In Christ liveth in me."

Why failure yesterday in that trial? Unpreparedness. Didn't ask for guidance about choosing of it. Didn't ask for help about doing it! Take the "guidance" principle into every detail, every department, every smallest section of my life.

For example, in the work I must do today: ask for guidance as to which papers September 23 & correct & whether to correct all first on record as corrected; ask for guidance about assignment of lessons and about table conversation & about directing Mai Chi's about going to walk with the teachers. Ask for help in correcting the papers teaching the classes, etc. - getting letters off -

Correction papers first.

Of life and suffering make its firm abode

RULES FOR SPELLING

Words ending in e drop that letter before the termination able, as in move, movable, unless ending in ce or ge, when it is retained, as in change, changeable, etc.

Words of one syllable ending in a consonant, with a single vowel before it double that consonant in derivatives, as ship, shipping, etc. But if ending in a consonant with a double vowel before it, they do not double the consonant in derivatives; as troop, trooper, etc.

Words of more than one syllable ending in a consonant preceded by a single vowel, and accented on the last syllable, double that consonant in derivatives; as commit, committed; but except chagrin, chagrined.

All words of one syllable ending in l, with a single vowel before it, have double ll at the close; as mill, sell.

All words of one syllable ending in l, with a double vowel before it, have only one l at the close as mail, sail.

The words foretell, distill, instill and fulfill retain the double l of their primitives. Derivatives of dull, skill, will and full also retain the ll when the accent falls on these words; as dull, nullness, skillful, willful, fullness.

Words of more than one syllable ending in l have only one l at the close; as delightful, faithful; unless the accent falls on the last syllable; as in befall, etc.

Words ending in l, double that letter in the termination ly.

Participle ending in ing, from verbs ending in e, lose the final e; as have, having; make, making, etc.; but verbs ending in ee retain both; see, seeing. Dye, to color, and singe, to scorch, however, must retain the e before ing.

All adverbs ending in ly and nouns ending in ment retain the e final of the primitives; as brave, bravely; refine, refinement; except words ending in ge; as judge, judgment.

Nouns ending in y, preceded by a vowel, form their plural by adding s; as money, moneys; but if y is preceded by a consonant, it is changed to ies in the plural; as bounty, bounties.

Words whose primitives end in y change the y into i; as beauty, beautiful.

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF ACCIDENT

DROWNING. 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately rising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils and pressing the "Adams' apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after hours of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give warm drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air and quiet.

BURNS AND SCALDS. Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. White of eggs and olive oil. Olive or linseed oil, plain or mixed with chalk or whiting.

LIGHTNING. Dash cold water over person struck.

SUNSTROKE. Loosen clothing. Get patient into shade, and apply ice cold water to head.

MAD DOG OR SNAKE BITE. Tie cord tight above wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife.

VENOMOUS INSECTS' STINGS etc. Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water, or iodine.

FAINTING. Place flat on back; allow fresh air and sprinkle with water.

BLEEDING FROM WOUND. If from an artery, stop the current of blood to the wound by putting a compress or cloth pad over the artery. Fasten it firmly by a handkerchief or bandage, which may be tightened by twisting in a stick as a binder. The location of the artery can generally be determined by the throbbing sensation. If from a vein, apply pressure directly over the wound or by exposure or application of cold water. Perchloride of Iron may be applied with cloth or lint. Keep the part elevated.

POISONS

GENERAL DIRECTIONS. Give an emetic as soon as possible; tablespoonful of powdered mustard in a tumbler of warm water, or twenty grains of ipecac; after vomiting, give freely of warm drinks.

SPECIAL DIRECTIONS. In case of poisoning from Arsenic, Corrosive Sublimate, Verdigris, Blue Vitriol, and from Vegetables kept in copper vessels; give emetic and white of egg, sweet oil and milk.

SUGAR OF LEAD. Give emetic and epsom salt.

Hemlock, Aconite, Belladonna and Fox Glove. Give emetic, then tannin and stimulants.

Opium, Laudanum and Morphine. Give an emetic, follow with strong coffee or white of an egg. Keep patient walking two or three hours, and extremities warm.
