Dear Dr. Fitch:-

I have received eight bags of rice from Mr. Sung this morning, but it is not enough for so much people. Those people are coming from the east and west gate, who are not only in need of rice, but also clothe and coverings. And their houses were burned to ashes, no home to live. How poor they are. Please send us eight bags of rice again. Beside the rice we have no coal and fire-wood. It is better if we have some from you.

This P. M. two Japs got into our dormitory to find nice girls, and then everywhere is full of tears. I have no ways to stop them. The middle school of Nanking University is the American property. Their eyes look upon you Americans to save them from shame. Your object, coming to China, is to save the poor. Jesus Christ is our Saviour. you Americans and English are the representatives of Jesus Christ. Instead of Him you have the spiritual power to save us with this good chance.

Dear Dr. Fitch, I have a very little suggestion to you. May you ask several sailors up to the shore, standing in front of the Nanjing University, and the middle school of Nanjing University and the Gin Ling girls' college, in which there are more than fifty thousand poor people inside. If it is possible to have more sailors around our 2/1/12 Compound, it is much better. This is my suggestion to you. If it could be done, I think more people will be saved from you missionaries. My dear friend this is the first step to do. If we didn't do this quick more people will die cruelly. Please reply me as soon as quick. I write this letter to you with my blood tears. my idea is not to have me but for those people. You know I am willing to die during such condition, but sorry for those poor people. I am a presbyterian Christian, an graduate from Nanking theological seminary in 1924. I have preaching for seven years, and now I am teaching in the middle school of Nanking University. I have the mind to save them, but no such authority. I am a weak people.

Please, as soon as possible, find some ways to save us with Christian love. I pray God to save us. Please remember us in your prayers.
O! our mighty God! 第二區區長
