

Dec. 21, 1937.

Dear Dr. Bates:

The House No. 6-, of Ping Tsang Hsiang (平巷) has been disturbed by three Japanese soldiers who came just from the neighboring wall at 11:30 o'clock this morning. The condition may be stated briefly as follows:

- ① Bayonets are shown out to the young men & women when they met;
- ② several hundred dollars are robbed out from the boxes;
- ③ Boxes are destroyed by their bayonets and clothes are broken into pieces;
- ④ several chemical bottles are poured out on the floor.

All the above are Prof. Nelson J. Chen's property.

Dear Dr. Bates:

The House NO. 10 ^{consists of more} ~~contains~~ ^{on} several than hundred refugees, of which three of them are very beautiful girls. One of them is ^{a very well} known ~~very well~~ by the Japanese soldiers. When ~~those~~ that girl ~~moves~~ enters the building, unfortunately she was looked by the soldiers. During this afternoon, the Japanese soldiers came in to the yard and search every where for those three girls, and in a short time they were found out by them. The Japanese soldier said that they will come tonight for sexual problem.

Now the present problem is, if we ask ~~these~~ ~~them~~ these three girls to go out suppose the Japanese soldiers come to that room and ask for them, how can we solve this problem.

Two hours ago I have sent you a letter which I have asked Prof. Chas. H. Riggs & Prof. W. P. Mills to transfer it to you. If that Japanese, will come to House No.
10 ^{to-night} to have sexual relation with one of the girls, what shall we do? We appreciate your help very soon.

Hoping to hear from you very soon,

I am,

yours truly,
J. T. Jwe
