

445. Kuo Yuan Shih went home to Lo Chia Hsiang on Feb. 3rd. By the side of a well she met two Japanese soldiers. She had a blind old woman with her and a little daughter on her arms. These soldiers brought all three of them to a room and raped her. They returned to the refugee camp. On the 6th of February she went home again and at the well met two Japanese soldiers who attempted to rape her but let her off because she begged them not to. She returned to the camp again.
446. On Feb. 13th, Mr. Ching was on his way home to Ts'ing Shih Kung and when he arrived three soldiers came asking for Hua Ku-hiang. Without waiting for an answer, they opened fire and wounded him on his left leg.
447. On Feb. 12th, Ma Chung-sung was on his way to Ts'ing Shih Kung and on his way back he met three cavalry men. He stood aside. The soldiers without any reason fired at him and killed him on the spot. The camp investigated and found it true.
448. On Feb. 13th, Wang Ma Shih, aged 36, was at home on Chai Pu Fang when two Japanese soldiers entered her home, searched every corner, and attempted to rape her. Seeing this she ran out of the house and was chased by the said soldiers. When she reached the end of the alley they caught her but she was saved by meeting a military police. The soldiers ran away.
449. On Feb. 12th, three Japanese soldiers intruded into a bed room at Tung Kwa Shih and demanded girls. Seeing a woman under a bed cover they attempted to do her violence. The male members of the house told them of her illness and at the same time asked somebody to shout outside for help. Then the soldiers went away.
450. At midnight Feb. 21th, five Japanese soldiers came knocking hard at the gate of Ginling College. Getting no response from inside they went to the end of Hankow Road and leaped into a certain Hsu's home and knocked at the door. As nobody answered the call, they went round to the window and pierced with bayonet at random. The women shouted with loud voice. This went on for an hour and at last the soldiers went away.
451. On Feb. 14th at 3 P.M. a Shan Chu-ch'ong was taken away by five men (three armed soldiers and two in plain clothes) to carry things while passing the Fu-Chen Bridge. Arriving at the corner of Sing San Hospital, they, pretending to see his An Chu Chen, robbed him of $91.00.
452. On Feb. 13th, about one o'clock in the morning, 8 or 9 soldiers came to the Tsu home at the back gate of Ginling College. They knocked fiercely on the gate and when it was not opened they went to the small house at the back where a refugee family is living. By means of the bayonet they forced the door open and demanded "hwa gu-niang". When told that they had none, they said "buh hsing" "yu" "yu". The people insisted that they did not have any young girls in the house and finally when they heard the men of the house say that they would "bao gao" or report them, they finally left.

453. On Feb. 15th, two Japanese soldiers entered the house of YuSze Shih aged 70 and compelled them to find girls for them. It was impossible to ~~f~~ comply with their wishes, so they raped the daughter-in-law, aged 40. After their action, they searched her body and took away $5.00 from her. The family returned to camp.
454. On Feb. 19th two men and a woman came to Headquarters. The night before ~~the~~ ~~four~~ four Japanese soldiers came to their home at Er T'iao Hsiang, posted one soldier outside and the other three came in, bringing with them a woman. They broke in the door and demanded money. ~~The~~ The people begged on their knees, but they shot the son and his uncle. The two wounded men we sent to the University Hospital.
455. On Feb. 18th a 52-year old shopkeeper was forced by two Japanese soldiers to try to carry a load for them. He was unable to carry it so they shot him, the bullet going through the neck just under the jaw, fracturing one side of the jaw bone. Condition is grave. (Wilson)
456. On Feb. 18th an 18-year old single girl who lives on University property who was raped by one Japanese soldier shortly after their entry into the city came to the Hospital. She escaped venereal infection only to find herself pregnant. She wants to know what can be done about it. (Wilson)
457. Feb. 24th. Yesterday a young man, ^{was a} part of a large crowd at Hwang Li Hsiang near Moh Tsou Lu that were buying flour from a shop. The Japanese guard on duty told the crowd to disperse. When they did not disperse fast enough a shot was fired into the crowd killing one woman 40-years old, wounding another woman in the leg and severely wounding this boy in the foot. (Wilson)
458. There is insufficient food at the University Farm (outside Taipingmen) to support the seven workers there. They need other workers who say they will come to work but not for money. They will work for a little food. (Bates) Feb. 24th.
459. Feb. 28th, during the morning a woman by the name of Fang who had been staying at the War College was on Chukiang road with some members of her family. A Japanese soldier told the girl to get out of the way and stuck her through the back with a bayonet. The bayonet went clear through and protruded through the front. She died in the clinic about 5 minutes after entering the hospital. (Wilson)