CLASS SONG

1. O here we come, O here we come; our loyal spirit showing.
With love for college and our class, our hearts are ever glowing.
2. When our dear college had her birth, our class first journeyed hither.
As freshmen then, as seniors now; we go right onward with her.
3. Then let us all with courage true, keep up our high endeavor.
Where 'er we go, where 'er we serve; united stand for ever.

Chorus:—

Lift our colours high then,
Keep them clean and bright men,
We 're the class of 1920 of F. C. U.

Benediction

"The Lorica"

—The Breastplate of Saint Patrick—

(An invocation-hymn of the Fifth Century, A. D.)

I bind to myself to-day
 The power of God to guide me,
 The might of God to uphold me,
 The wisdom of God to teach me,
 The eye of God to watch over me,
 The ear of God to hear me,
 The word of God to give me speech,
 The hand of God to protect me,
 The way of God to be before me,
 The shield of God to shelter me,
 The Host of God to defend me.

* * * * *

Christ with me, Christ before me,
 Christ behind me, Christ within me,
 Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
 Christ at my right hand, Christ at my left,
 Christ in chariot (when I travel),
 Christ in the ship (when I sail).

Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
 Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks to me,
 Christ in every eye that sees me,
 Christ in every ear that hears me.

Of the Lord is Salvation, Christ is Salvation;
 With us ever be thy salvation, O Lord! Amen.

10. Hymn—God Speed the Right.

Now to heaven our cry ascending,
God speed the right!
In the noble cause contending,
God speed the right!
May we live our lives before Thee,
Like the good and great in story,
If we fail, we fail with glory,—
God speed the right!

Patient, firm, and persevering,
God speed the right!
No event of danger fearing,
God speed the right!
Pains, nor toils, nor trials heeding,
Never from the truth receding,
And in Heaven's own time succeeding,
God speed the right!

Still our onward course pursuing,
God speed the right!
Every foe at length subduing,
God speed the right!
Truth! thy cause, whate'er delay it,
There's no power on earth can stay it
Proudly let us then obey it,
God speed the right!

Draw Thou my soul, O Christ,
Closer to Thine;
Breathe into every wish

Raised my low self above,
Won by Thy deathless love,
Ever, O Christ, thro' mine
Let Thy life shine.

Lead forth my soul, O Christ,
One with Thine own,
Joyful to follow Thee
Thro' paths unknow!
In Thee my strength renew;
Give me my work to do!
Thro' me Thy truth be shown,
Thy love made known.

Not for myself alone
May my prayer be;
Lift Thou Thy world, O Christ,
Closer to Thee!
Cleanse it from guilt and wrong.
Teach it salvation's song,
Till earth, as heaven, fulfil
God's holy will.

Nearer to Thee, O Christ,
Nearer to Thee!
Till we in Thy dear face
God's glory see;
Heavenward our hopes ascend,
Savior and Lord and Friend:
O draw us all to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

2. Memorial Ceremony.

3. Anthem—"The Heavens Are Declaring." Beethoven
 University Glee Club

The heav'ns are declaring the Lord's endless glory;
 Thro' all the earth His praise is found.
 The seas re-echo the marvelous story;
 O man, repeat that glorious sound.
 The starry host He orders and measures,
 He fills the morning's golden springs:
 He wakes the sun from his night-curtained slumbers;
 O man, adore the King of Kings.

What power and splendor, and wisdom and order,
 In Nature's mighty plan unrolled!
 Thro' space and time, to infinity's border.
 What wonders vast and manifold:
 The earth is His and the heav'ns o'er it bending
 The Maker in His works behold!
 He is, and will be thro' ages unending,
 A God of strength and love untold,

Favorite Hymns of the Late President E. C. Jones

Fling Out The Banner!

1. Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
The sun, that lights its shining folds,
The cross, on which the Saviour died.
2. Fling out the banner! angels bend
In anxious silence o'er the sign,
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonder of the love divine.
5. Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide,
Our glory, only in the cross;
Our only hope, the Crucified!
6. Fling out the banner! wide and high,
Seaward and skyward let it shine;
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours;
We conquer only in that sign.

Christian! Dost Thou See Them

1. Christian! dost thou see them
On the holy ground,
How the powers of darkness
Rage thy steps around?
Christian! up and smite them,
Counting gain but loss;
In the strength that cometh
By the holy cross.
3. Christian! dost thou hear them,
How they speak thee fair?
"Always fast and vigil?
Always watch and prayer?"
Christian! answer boldly:
"While I breathe I pray!"
Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.
4. "Well I know thy trouble,
O my servant true
Thou art very weary,
I was weary too;
But that toil shall make thee
Some day all mine own,
And the end of sorrow
Shall be near my throne."

Be Strong

1. Be strong!
We are not here to play, to dream, to drift,
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift.
Shun not the struggle, face it, 'tis God's gift,
Be strong, be strong!
2. Be strong!
Say not the days are evil—who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce—O shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name,
Be strong, be strong!
3. Be strong!
It matters not how deep intrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day, how long;
Faint not, fight on! To-morrow comes the song,
Be strong, be strong.

God Send Us Men

1. God send us men whose aim 'twill be,
Not to defend some worn-out creed,
But to live out the laws of Christ
In every thought and word and deed.
2. God send us men alert and quick
His lofty precepts to translate,
Until the laws of Christ become
The laws and Habits of the State.
3. God send us men! God send us men!
Patient, courageous, strong and true,
With vision clear and mind equipped,
His will to learn, His work to do.
4. God send us men with hearts ablaze,
All truth to love, all wrong to hate;
These are the patriots nations need,
These are the bulwarks of the State.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: "Ancient of Days." No. 63. (Chinese hymnal, No. 11)

PRAYER OF INVOCATION: (Congregation will join in Lord's Prayer at close)

HYMN: "Lead Us, O Father." No. 234.

PENITENTIAL PRAYER: (Congregation seated)

Leader: Dearly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us, in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble or cloak them before the face of Almighty God our Heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought, at all times, humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we chiefly so to do when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are necessary, as well for the body as for the soul. Wherefore I beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice saying,

(In unison)

Almighty and most merciful Father; we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. Have mercy upon and restore those who are penitent, according to Thy promises unto mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant that we may hereafter, for his sake, live a godly, righteous and sober life. Amen.

HYMN: "Soldiers of the Cross." No. 331.

RESPONSIVE READING: The Law of God

Leader: Hear the ancient law of God,
Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.
Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy.
Honor thy father and thy mother.
Thou shalt not kill.
Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal.
Thou shalt not bear false witness.
Thou shalt not covet.

Response: Lord, have mercy upon us and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Leader: Hear a prophet's summary of the law. Micah said.
He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Response: Lord, have mercy upon us and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Leader: Hear the new commandment of love. Jesus said.
Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the first and great commandment.

Response: Lord, have mercy upon us and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Leader: And the second is like unto it.

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Response: Lord, have mercy upon us and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Leader: A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you that ye love one another.

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

Response: Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Leader: Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only.

Response: Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God.

Leader: If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

Response: He that keepeth the commandments keepeth his own soul.

Leader: The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.

Response: The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart.

Leader: Moreover, by them is thy servant warned.

And in keeping of them there is great reward.

Response: He that doeth the will of God abideth forever.

ANTHEM: "Bless the Lord, O my Soul." Ippolitof-Lvanof. The Choir

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Bless the Lord and forget not all his benefits;

Bless thou the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, Bless his holy Name.

He is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering and great in goodness.

He will not always chide, nor keepeth He His wrath forever.

Bless thou the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, Bless his holy Name.

SUMMARY OF THE BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Rev. 21:5 Behold, I make all things new

In one of his little books Henry Van Dyke refers to three ideals in education: the decorative, the marketable, and the creative. The man with the first, thinks of education as an ornamental appendage to his own life, a thing that will give him an air of distinction and a reputation for being refined and polished. The second man wants an education, not for the purpose of living, but for the purpose of making a living or accumulating wealth - wealth for its own sake or as an instrument of pleasure or power, a means for the gratification of ambition and pride. If any of you should stop on either of those two rounds of the ladder, you have missed the highest thing in life and your professors here as well as your friends would be ashamed of you. The only adequate ideal in education is the creative ideal. The man with this ideal is the one who is able to make things new. He is able to create music out of sound, poetry out of words, beauty out of colors, and form out of matter. He is filled with the spirit of the Creator, who says, "Behold, I make all things new."

The man with the creative ideal has found a new life; he is a new man himself. A new life makes all things new. The uninteresting life of the Russian peasants has acquired an inexplicable charm in the pages of Tolstoi. Christ fires the soul with the creative spirit. Life becomes a work of art. He says, "Behold I make all things new."

The man with the creative ideal has found a new truth. A new truth makes all things new. A new Christian world emerged when Luther saw a new truth; the condition in England changed when George Fox caught a vision of "The far land of Light". Christ opens a person's mind to perceive the great truth which would set him free. "Behold, I make all things new."

The man with the creative ideal has found a new way, a way of love. Love makes all things new. You remember how a little child stirred the hidden fountains of life in the miser's heart, and Silas Marner once devoid of friendships and affection found a new way and a new world. Old things passed away, and all things became new. When Jesus described and lived out in detail the ideal of man animated by great and enduring love of man, he pictured a potential power for everyone.

This is the way that Christ makes all things new. He says, "I am the Life the Truth, and the Way." He makes us new and all things new, not by any miraculous or supernatural power, but by giving us a new heart and a new spirit, by the power of the new truth which he shows to us, and the new love with which he inspires us. "If any man be in Christ he is a new creature." You may have been in this institution for years and may have been in philosophy or psychology classes, in the chemistry or physics laboratory, but if you have not been in Jesus you have failed to secure that highest and noblest power that this university would give you, namely the power to make all things new, for "you can do all things through Christ which strengtheth you".
