A PIONEER COMMENCEMENT

ADELAIDE GUNDLACH, B.A.

College commencements are becoming so common these days that they pass by us without ever giving us pause as to what they mean in the life of the students who graduate, or of the country which they represent and which they go out to serve. However, the first commencement of Ginling College has meant so much to us who took part in it, that we feel that perhaps others too may be interested.

The first senior class had been looking forward eagerly to their commencement, and plans were already under way when news came that the students, both in government and mission schools, were going on strike for the purpose of impressing on the Peking government the necessity of a rule more in accord with the wishes of the people. Feeling the need of unity in such a movement, the Ginling college students decided to put all their strength into this emergency which had so suddenly arisen. They gave up the idea of having a commencement, and three weeks before the close of the term organized a campaign for social service. At the end of two weeks, feeling that some of the aims of the strike had been accomplished, they took up college work again with the determination to finish the term's work if possible and take their chances on passing or failing in the examinations. Commencement plans were again resumed and on June 25th, the five seniors, who for four years had been the upper class in the college, went out as the first alumnae.

The exercises were very simple but very impressive. Mr. Weecker Van Wageningen of New York, a friend of the college from its very beginning, gave the English address. It seemed very fitting that he should choose for his subject "Fulness of Life," as the motto which has been chosen for the college seal is taken from John 10: 10, "That they might have Life," the two Chinese characters being Ho Seng. Out of the richness of his own life experience, Mr. Van Wageningen spoke of the privilege and cost of living an abundant, full, life—physically, mentally and spiritually.

Dr. W. T. Tao, acting Dean of the Government Teachers' College, gave the commencement address in Chinese, and spoke to the students in a splendid way on the need of women in the educational development of China.

The whole spirit of the day was one of a real Commencement, and we all had the feeling that it was in this spirit of consecration to a new task, and a greater task, that the seniors were going out. The key-note of the morning can be found in Mrs. Thurston's words, here quoted, with which, as president of the college, she opened the Commencement exercises.

"Because this is our first Commencement, and also because of the peculiar situation in which recent events have placed us, it has seemed fitting to state the purpose of the College in holding these exercises and inviting you to attend.

In the first place we do not wish to boast of our achievements. The work done in these pioneer years has of necessity been very humble, and we are all too conscious of our failings and short-comings to feel like boasting. We are grateful for all the friendly interest and sympathy which has been shown us, and we trust that the college in the years to come will be more worthy of her friends.

To us this first Commencement has a very solemn significance. We have looked forward to this day as an end for which we have been striving, a day which would mark a completion of work which has taken our best strength through four years. We realize today that it does bring to an end some of the happy relations which have existed between us. We realise, too, that it ends a period of preparation and of special opportunities for those who are graduating. These endings of necessity make us solemn.

Our American term "Commencement" puts the emphasis not on what is past and finished but on the future which lies open to the new graduates. The real business of living, for which college has been the last stage of preparation, begins when they go out to stand alone, and to bear the responsibilities of the world. The students of yesterday are the leaders of tomorrow. In no country is this so true as in China. Recent events have made us realise that China's need for educated men and women of unselfish spirit is urgent. Very heavy burdens must be taken up by these who go out from the quiet, joyous life of study. Strength beyond mere human strength is needed for the tasks which they must accept.

Our purpose today is to set apart these our first graduates, not to special privileges and honors which shall lift them up above their sisters in China, but to special service, as heralds of the dawn of a new day, as messengers of the good news of the Kingdom of God."

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Rejoice, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks and sing;
Your festal banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King,

Rejoice, rejoice,
Rejoice, give thanks and sing.

Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek,
Raise high your free, exulting song,
God's wondrous praises speak.

With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth.

Yes on, through life's long path,
Still chanting as we go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Then on, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing,
Your festal banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King.

ORDER OF SERVICE

1. ACADEMIC PROCESSION
2. TRIO "Andante Cantabile", Tschaiowsky
Organ, Violin, Cello
3. OPENING SENTENCE "To Thee, O Lord", Rachmaninoff
To Thee, O Lord, Do I lift up my soul;
My God, I trust in Thee!
4. INVOCATION Rev. E. S. Yui
5. HYMN "Come Thou Almighty King" Congregation

Come, Thou almighty King,
 Help us Thy Name to sing,
 Help us to praise!
 Father all-glorious,
 Ever all victorious,
 Come and reign over us,
 Ancient of Days.

Come, Thou incarnate Word,
 Gird on Thy mighty sword,
 Our prayer attend,
 Come and Thy people bless,
 And give Thy word success;
 Spirit of holiness,
 On us descend!

Come, Holy Comforter,
 Thy sacred witness bear,
 In this glad hour,
 Thou who almighty art,
 Now rule in every heart,
 And never from us depart,
 Spirit of power!

To Thee, great One in Three,
 Eternal praises be
 Hence, evermore:
 Thy sov'reign majesty
 May we in glory see,
 And to eternity
 Love and adore!

Amen.

6. ANTHEM

"Hymn To The Saviour", Kremser

The Choir

Mrs. C. K. Tung, Soloist

With all my weight of woes unspoken,
 Let me before Thee bend the knee;
 Thou hope of weary hearts and broken,
 O Saviour, Show Thy grace to me.
 On Thee I call!
 The tears are falling
 From out mine eyes in grateful flow;
 And heavenly voices hear I calling,
 Do not despair, O Child of Woel

Within my breast echoes their message,
 The flow'r of faith now blooms again,
 In warm devotion's holy presage
 As clouds of night dissolve my pain.
 I hear a sound
 Of angel voices,
 The last of earthly fetters breaks;
 My longing heart to heav'n upwinging
 With Thee in light and joy awakes!

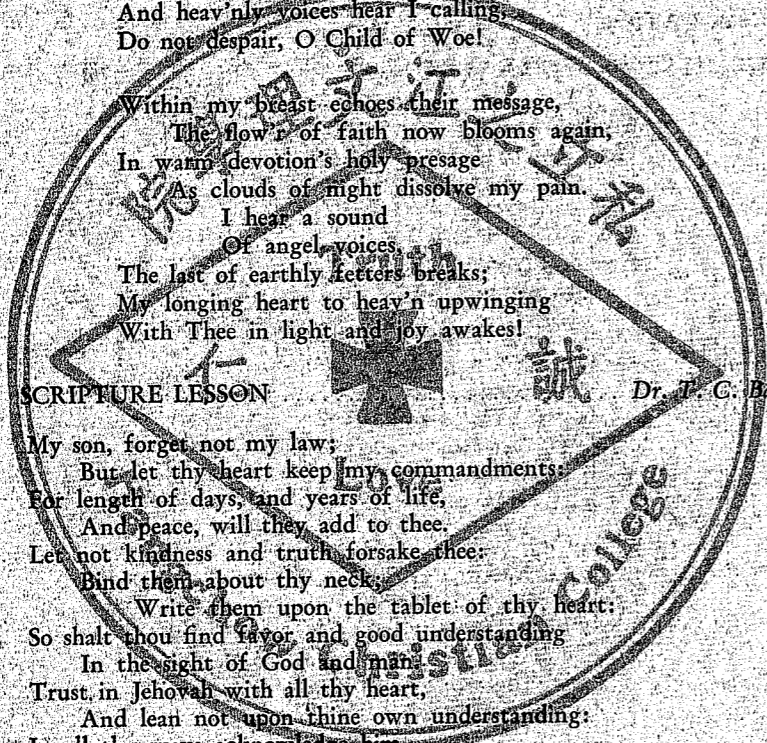

7. SCRIPTURE LESSON

Dr. T. C. Bau

My son, forget not my law;
 But let thy heart keep my commandments:
 For length of days, and years of life,
 And peace, will they add to thee.
 Let not kindness and truth forsake thee:
 Bind them about thy neck,
 Write them upon the tablet of thy heart:
 So shalt thou find favor and good understanding
 In the sight of God and man.
 Trust in Jehovah with all thy heart,
 And lean not upon thine own understanding:
 In all thy ways acknowledge him,
 And he will direct thy paths.

(Proverbs 3:1-6)

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom,
 And the man that getteth understanding,
 For the gaining of it is better than the gaining of silver,
 And the profit thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies:

And none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand;
In her left hand are riches and honor.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her:
And happy is every one that retaineth her.

Jehovah by wisdom founded the earth;
By understanding he established the heavens.

By his knowledge the depths were broken up,
And the skies drop down the dew.

My son, let them not depart from thine eyes:
Keep sound wisdom and discretion:

So shall they be life unto thy soul,
And grace to thy neck.

Then shalt thou walk in thy way securely,
And thy foot shall not stumble.

When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid:
Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

Be not afraid of sudden fear,
Neither of the desolation of the wicked when it cometh:

For Jehovah will be thy confidence,
And will keep thy foot from being taken.

(Proverbs 3:13-26)

And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me.

(Mark 1: 17)

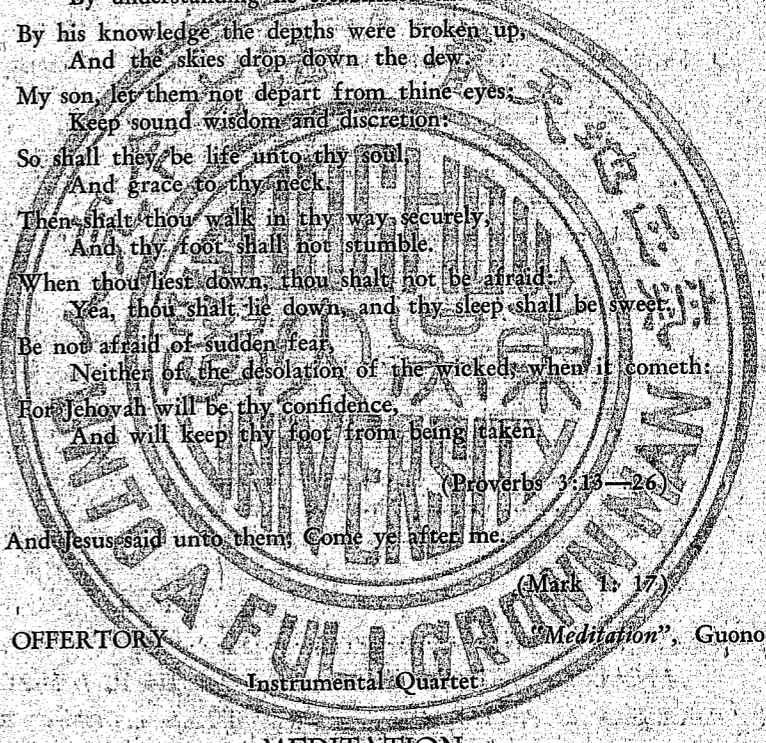

8. OFFERTORY

"Meditation", Guonod

Instrumental Quartet

MEDITATION

Jesus, Lord Jesus,
 Mighty yet lowly, pure and most holy,
 Hear from thy starry throne our prayer,
 Though faithless friends may grieve us,
 Wealth and fortune leave us,
 Grant to our grief and to our pain thy tender care.

Jesus our Shepherd,
Jesus our Savior, our refuge!
When we are tearful,
When we are fearful,
Grant to us thine aid,
To us thine aid,
Thine aid of prayer.

Amen.

(The offering received will be contributed to the Salvation
Army for Beggar Boys' Vocational Training Fund)

9. SERMON "The Call of God"

Rev. Z. T. Kaung, B.D., D.D.

10. HYMN "Where Cross The Crowded Ways of Life" Congregation

Where cross the crowded ways of life,
Where sound the cries of race and clan,
Above the noise of selfish strife,
We hear Thy voice, O Son of man!

In haunts of wretchedness and need,
On shadowed thresholds dark with fears,
From paths where hide the lures of greed,
We catch the vision of Thy tears.

O Master, from the mountain side,
Make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
Among these restless throngs abide,
O tread the city's streets again.

Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
And follow where Thy feet have trod;
Till, glorious from Thy heaven above,
Shall come the city of our God!

Amen.

11. PRAYER FOR THE GRADUATES,
AND BLESSING Dr. R. J. McMullen

12. RECESSIONAL ANTHEM "Land of Hope and Glory", Elgar

LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY

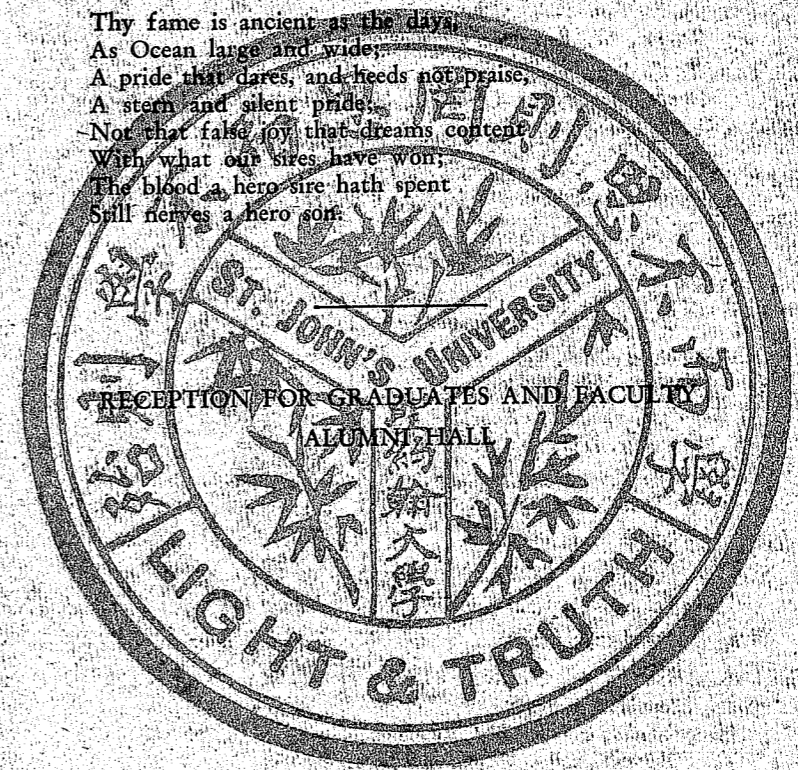

Dear Land of Hope, thy hope is crowned,
God make thee mightier yet!
On Sov'ran brows, belov'd, renown'd,
Once more thy crown is set.
Thine equal laws, by Freedom gained,

Have ruled thee well and long;
By Freedom gained, by Truth maintained,
Thine Empire shall be strong!

Chorus:

Land of Hope and Glory, Mother of the Free,
How shall we extol thee, who are born of thee?
Wider still and wider shall thy bounds be set;
God, who made thee mighty, make thee mightier yet!

Thy fame is ancient as the days,
As Ocean large and wide;
A pride that dares, and heeds not praise,
A stern and silent pride,
Not that false joy that dreams content
With what our sires have won,
The blood a hero sire hath spent
Spill nerves a hero son.

9. ANTHEM "The Lord Is My Light", E. Allitsen

Chorus of the Associated Colleges

The Lord is my Light and my salvation,
Whom, then, shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life,
Of whom, then, shall I be afraid?

Though an host of men were laid against me,
Yet shall not my heart be afraid,
And though there rose up war against me,
Yet will I put my trust in Him.

For in the time of trouble,
He shall hide me in His tabernacle,
Yea, in the secret places of His dwelling shall He hide me,
And set me up upon a rock of stone.

The Lord is my Light and my salvation,
Whom, then, shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life,
Of whom, then, shall I be afraid?
