THE CLASS OF 1919

LIU GIEN-TSIU	劉劍秋
REN CHO	任偉
TANG HWEI-TSING	湯蕙菁
TSU IH-DJEN (MRS. W. S. NEW)	徐亦秦
WU YI-FANG	吳貽芳

THE PIONEERS

1919 Class:

The first freshmen: 8 homesick, frightened girls; huge, nearly empty building; cold and dark in winter; almost no equipment: Is this a college?

Language problems!

Beginning of college spirit: Founders Day, other group activities. The first freshmen were also the first sophomores, first juniors, first seniors.

Traditions started by them: Neighborhood Sunday School and later Day School, YWCA, Student Government, etc.

First Commencement - Nearly missed because of nationwide student strike, which ended just in time.

Ginling owes a great debt to this first class of which Dr. Wu Yi-fang and Mrs. New were members. They were "The Pioneers."

My dear Miss Grist,

Your letter found me in Faffrey so I had to wait until I came here to get the information that you wanted. But yesterday I sent off a letter from the Registrar, a copy of which I inclose. I trust that these items cover all the points which you wished.

It looks as if the lamps they stayed at Smith
the poorer work they did.

Daisy your record is certainly a good one. As you'll see, we are not saying anything about Thelma Min Sui(?) for she got no degree and was sick half the time anyway.

This will have to go to New York as I have not your other address with me. We haven't really moved down from Jaffrey yet.

Sincerely yours,

Ellen P. Cook
