OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Jan. 8, 1931

Dear Miss Giest,

Your long letter of Nov. 26 was forwarded to me in Shanghai. For the first time I heard of the resignation of Miss Barber. I was also horrified at the news and worried over the effect on the work of G. C. C. I was planning to have an Executive Com. meeting and to discuss if we might not make some suggestion from the field. As soon as Mrs. Thurston came down, I talked it over with her, but she pointed out that it was G. C. C. business and we from China should not interfere. Furthermore, I have had no official word from the Committee about the resignation. So, we decided not to do anything now. But I am most grateful that you are doing the real important work for the Candidate Committee. How I hope that you may continue to help Ginling even after Miss Sandberg's return. I have not received any word about the annual meeting this year, and
