Dear Mr. Fowler:

My secretary forwarded to me out here in Pennsylvania the notice of the special meeting of the Hwa Chung College Finance Committee next Tuesday afternoon.

I regret that I can not meet with you. Another engagement will prevent.

Very truly yours,

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Dear Mr. Sherman:

Following our recent meeting of the Hua Chung Board of Founders I wrote to the office of the Methodist Missionary Society in London with regard to one of the actions taken, that is regarding provision for Chinese who are directly supported by the Missionary Society.

Yesterday I received a reply from Mr. Harold Rattenbury, and a copy of this reply is sent to you for information.

Very truly yours,

Frank T. Cartwright

My dear Dr. Cartwright:

After the death of Dr. J. G. Vaughan, I wrote to The Rev. Harold S. Rattenbury regarding the appointment of a new alternate for Miss Porter to represent the Methodist Missionary Society of London on the Huachung Committee. I told him that if they had no one to suggest that I would consult you regarding the suggestion of a name to be used. Will you please let me know whose name you would recommend to submit to Mr. Rattenbury to appoint as an alternate to Miss Porter on the Huachung Committee?

Many thanks for your help in this matter.

Very sincerely yours,

J. Earl Fowler

Dear Dr. Fowler:

Replying to your inquiry of June 4th about a name to be suggested in place of Dr. Vaughan on the Huachung Committee, I would suggest one or the other of the following:- If a woman is desired, I would suggest Miss Louise Robinson, who is the China secretary for our Woman's Division. If a man is preferred I would suggest Dr. A Morris Paty, who is Dr. Vaughan's successor in our Medical Department.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. A. L. Warnshuis
419 Fourth Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear Dr. Warnshuis:

At the meeting of the Hua Chung College Board of Founders last spring, the question was raised of service by alternate on behalf of the regular trustees. I have been looking up the correspondence with Mr. Grist concerning the appointment of Dr. Vaughan and myself. The correspondence states expressly that we have been elected by the affiliated bodies of the United Methodist Church, or rather, of the Missionary Society which formerly was conducted under the name of the Methodist Missionary Society. I believe this clears up the legal status.

Very truly yours,
