Gentlemen: In re Edward H. Haskell Estate

In the above Estate, you were furnished with a copy of the will and have doubtless noted that you were given a legacy of $20,000., payment of which is deferred for five years, your Association to receive interest thereon at the rate of 5% in the interim.

We are therefore enclosing our check in the sum of $500., representing the payment of interest due July 8th. Similar amounts will be paid you on January 8th and July 8th of each year, until the legacy is payable.

Yours very truly,

H. M. Andrews

Mr. Allan W. Ames, Treasurer
Lingnan University
New York City

Dear Mr. Ames:

The enclosed receipt requires your signature. As you will see, Mr. Grant has already affixed the official seal of the College and after you have signed the receipt it can be mailed directly to the First National Bank of Boston.

There were no conditions attached to this bequest and Mr. Garside's office tells me that the $20,000 has been deposited in the Custodian's Account at the downtown branch of the Farmers Loan and Trust Co.

Mr. Grant is taking steps to have a new seal for "Lingnan University" made to replace the present one of "Canton Christian College."

Sincerely yours

Assistant Secretary
