My dear Mr. Lewis:-

Your appeal for Peking University came to me long ago and I have been hoping that in some way I could see my way to the hundred dollars which you are asking for all friends of Peking University. I don't know but I should very much like to give my share. I am wondering if you can help me to make it possible to find the money. I have a string of red pearls with jade pendant which I should be glad to send as my contribution if you could find a purchaser for it.

If you think this likely I will mail it to you. I do not know how much it would bring - if it will not bring at least fifty dollars
I should rather not sell it.

Please do not mention my name in connection with this.

Yours very sincerely,

My dear Mrs Hall:

I have carried around your letter for two days. I did not quite know what to write when it came in Saturday because I felt that in some way I must cooperate with you in helping to carry through the sacrificial offer you made of your string of seed pearls with the jade pendant.

Saturday afternoon I went up to see a very good friend of mine, an elderly lady, and without mentioning your name I read two or three sentences of your letter. It affected her the way it did me and she told me to ask you at once to send the string by registered mail to me and I think between us we shall be able to secure a fair if not generous return on them. Of course I cannot tell what their appraised value will be, we shall have to learn that, but after that has been discovered I hope we may be successful in receiving a return including not only its appraised value but also a bit of the spiritual value which you have so unselfishly put upon it.

If you wish to send the string at once it will be of advantage, coming just before Christmas.

With very deep appreciation,

Sincerely yours,

To

Dear Mrs. Hill:

We received the seed pearls just at Christmas time and since then I have spoken to several friends about them. Just last night one of our trustees said that she would like the opportunity of having as many as such as they were valued. I think, therefore, we can look for a sale at certainly not less than $50 and we will try to get as much more as we can. As soon as the matter is settled I will write you the amount secured.

Your sacrifice in this matter has been an inspiration to us here.

In the meantime we are sending you a little Peking Lion to which you are entitled, as a little reminder of Peking University, of the service which you are thus rendering it.

Very sincerely yours

My dear Mrs. Hall:

You will be glad to know that the seed pearls which you so generously and unselfishly gave to Peking University - the money from the sale of them to be used toward the Mechanical Equipment and Expense Fund - have just been appraised at $100. As Mr. Lewis told you in a previous letter - one of trustees is anxious for them so we will soon have the money in hand.

Mr. Lewis is leaving today for Florida but on receiving word of the appraisal a few moments ago, he asked me to let you know.

Dear Mrs. Hall:

I am delighted to tell you that Franklin Warner, the chairman of our Board of Trustees, telephoned me a few days ago and asked whether it would be possible for him to purchase for $100.00 the beautiful seed pearl necklace which you sent last spring and which you will recall was appraised at $100.00.

This completes one of the most generous chapters in the giving to Peking University and I want to tell you again how very, very deeply we appreciate this generosity of yours.

President Stuart has just arrived from China for a very important conference on University matters. He reports that though the accounts which we have read of the recent events in China have undoubtedly been exaggerated, nevertheless the whole Chinese nation is on the qui vive. There is a great tension there; the nation is aroused as never before in its history; it is becoming unified as never before in its history. It is also on the brink of the greatest "push-forward" in the history of the people. Our university has come through this past crisis not only with the fullest respect of all the Chinese and thoughtful Americans, but it has also come to a place of unusual leadership because of the foresight and sanity of its faculty and students. You will be interested to know that when the students of all the universities and colleges of Peking assembled to select a delegate to represent them at the National Student Conference in Shanghai to discuss what the students of the nation should do at this time, it was voted that the Peking representatives should come from our university - and the man selected was a student volunteer for Christian service!

With deep appreciation,

Sincerely yours

My dear Dr. Stuart:-

My father told me last week of your call upon him at his office. It was certainly very kind of you to remember us in your hurried trip to Baltimore. It always warms my heart to hear directly from Peking where you know my abiding interest lies. I never cease to miss your mother's wonderful letters which brought me such a detailed and sympathetic narrative of Peking's doings.

I hope that you have been successful in the mean old the task is more harassing than

Your note has just reached me this morning. I should liked so much to have seen you but when only in the city for part of the day this was out of the question.

I am happy to report that our present campaign bids fair to accomplish its purpose altho we cannot be certain of this as yet. In any case, it will have been worth the time I have spent altho as you can readily imagine I especially regret having to be away from China at this time. I am sailing S.S. Majestic on May 12th.

June 22-30

My dear Mr. Day:-

I sent your letter to my brother-in-law and have not yet heard from him and also do not have the letter before me in replying.

I find to my sorrow that Brown Memorial Church of which Mr. Garrison Spurr is pastor is making extensive improvements in its buildings and is spending about one hundred thousand dollars. In New York that is a trifle but in Baltimore it looks so big that I fear the Church will get nearly poor. Money I am willing to do anything in my small power in the fall if you think that is the best line of action. There is no use in trying to do anything in a Baltimore Church after April for nobody is thinking only of bringing the work to a close for the year.

On the other hand the churches in Brookville, Penn are as active in the summer as in the winter since the climate there is delightful. The Presbyterian Church there has been very generous having supported the Peking Day School as a memorial to Dr. Hall and having also given me about $250⁰⁰ to found the three memorial scholarships in Francis's name. There is a certain amount of wealth in the Church and also in the Methodist Church. If Dr. Stuart could find time to make a visit to Brookville and visit these two churches he might get some money. If he could not if you would have an opportunity in the fall the people might give their purses to you as well as their homes.
Inasmuch as I have twice made appeals to these Churches I doubt the wisdom of my being so again.

Try two minutes and much as still in the old place and seem little older than when you saw them about fifteen years ago. I am sure they would be delighted to entertain Dr. Stuart unless their home is already overflowing with summer guests. In that case some other relative will be glad to have him. Mr. Wm. Holmaker is the pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Brookville.

Thanking you again for your interest, I am cordially yours
J. M. Hall

Dear Mrs. Hall:

We are very grateful for your generous pledge. I wish to be certain that we interpret it correctly. Will you kindly let me know whether you meant us to understand that you intend to give $10 each year for a number of years, paying $5 in January and $5 in July of each year? The financial depression is rendering our task so difficult that we are more than ever grateful to those friends who stand by us at this time.

On the first pledge card which Mrs. Hall sent us, she wrote the following:
"I hereby pledge the sum of ($ten $10-), to be paid by me in accordance with the plan checked below:

(x) In semi-annual payments beginning July & January of each year.
Mr. Wannamaker then wrote her the letter of July 25, 1930, attached hereto. With his letter we sent her a copy of the above pledge, typed, and instead of answering Mr. W's letter directly she returned the copy of the pledge, adding the words "for five years" and enclosed a check for $5.00.

We have therefore entered the entire pledge as $50, to be paid semi-annually in $5 installments as stated above.

Dear Mrs. Hall:

As a former member of the Yenching faculty family, you have been receiving news from the field in several forms in the course of this year: the printed Bulletins issued by our office at 150 Fifth Avenue, Dr. Stuart's confidential letters, - and some of you have had the Fortnightly letters from the Women's College, as well as messages directly from your personal friends. This has pretty certainly kept you close to the problems on the campus, but we have not been so successful in sharing with you the problems of the Trustees in this country.

*do not

At the moment we face a very serious problem, of which the solution cannot be postponed beyond the closing of our year on June 30th. In order to claim a conditional gift of $47,000 to complete the initial unit of $100,000 Endowment for the Women's College, we must secure, before June 30th, $12,000 more than has yet been paid or pledged. The enclosed booklet and pledge card will give you the reasons for our enthusiasm in working toward this goal, and most of you will need no argument other than your own personal loyalty and your appreciation of the tremendously encouraging effect of such an evidence of our faith and friendship at this time. Would you not like to make a gift to this fund? Do you not know others who will give if the opportunity is put to them by you?

Enclosed I am sending our receipt for your contribution to the work of the Yenching College for Women, with our grateful thanks for your interest and support.

You will be glad to know that the College is getting under way in Chengtu and that all reports are encouraging. A recent letter from Miss Boynton stresses the spirit among the old students, and expresses the feeling that they have of responsibility toward the new students.

My dear Mr. Hall:

I am delighted that Mrs. Hall and others of your family have thought of Peking at this time with reference to placing a memorial to Dr. Hall. I think it would be more simple and quite adequate to give the fund direct to the trustees of Peking University and would suggest that you might use our regular subscription card, making such changes in it that you may desire. I have indicated on the sample card what I think might be in harmony with your thought on the matter as indicated in your letter. I send a card in case you should desire to make other changes. This is the regular legal form that we are using now at this time.

Although I was not living in Peking when Dr. Hall was there I knew him somewhat and always felt that had I been privileged to know him better it would have been to love him much. I am most happy to think that he can have a memorial of this nature at Peking University, where after traveling all over China I came to the conclusion that there was no single spot where an investment might be made to greater advantage than Peking University.

Appreciating deeply your thought to co-operate with us in this wonderfully fine way in our great task, Believe me

Treasurer of Peking University,

Dear sir:

In 1923 I wrote to Dr. Henry W. Luce regarding the establishing of a Memorial Scholarship at Peking University in memory of my brother, Dr. Francis J. Hall, who was a member of the Presbyterian Mission at Peking from 1906 to 1913, and who died in Peking in 1913. We have been slower in collecting the fund than expected when I first wrote Dr. Luce, but have now on hand the total sum which it is now convenient to remit. The amount is approximately $2350.00, and it is now on deposit in the Savings Dept. of the First National Bank of Wauwatosa, Wisc. The total sum will be remitted to you at once if desired, but as some of it has been on deposit for several months, interest amounting to about $23.00 will be credited to the account on Jan. 1, 1925. The interest will be sacrificed if the amount is withdrawn before Jan. 1, although it can be drawn at any time without previous notice. Therefore please inform me whether you prefer to have the sum remitted now, or on January 1 next, at which time it will amount to about $2373.00.

It is intended to give this money on about the conditions mentioned in sheet attached. I have asked the approval of some of the donors to this statement, which has not yet been received. If you have any suggestions as to the form of the gift, please make them in your answer.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Hall:

I appreciate very much your letter of the 15th and its word concerning your generous plan to establish at Peking a memorial scholarship for your brother, Dr. Francis J. Hall, who was for so long a time a member of the Presbyterian Mission in Peking.

✓ It will be perfectly all right to plan to forward this after January 1st, but I am taking the liberty of sending to Pres. Stuart and Dr. Luce at once, not only a copy of your letter to us here but also a copy of the conditions under which the money is being given, in order that they may plan to assign this scholarship immediately after the beginning of the New Year when we will have received the money here and invested it so it will produce the required amount for scholarship use.

I am sure you will enjoy the succeeding numbers of the Peking News as they are issued and as they report the gradual development of events in China which are moulding that troubled nation into a political unity. What a decade from now holds forth no one knows but it seems really assured now that the history of the Pacific Basin and indeed perhaps of the world may find itself wrapped inextricably around the millions of people who make up the Chinese race. And the ideals which will be the controlling force of that people, Peking University, and all of us who have a share in its work, will be responsible for, and to maintain these we must continually draw upon strength other than our own.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hall:

I am sending you under separate cover two or three little bits of our printed literature. I am sure that you will be interested in looking over the little pamphlet which gives a historical background of the campus map which I gave you when I saw you in Milwaukee.

You will recall that during our conversation you suggested that it might be possible for you to increase the Francis Jenks Hall Memorial scholarship fund. We would be very grateful if this might be done since one of our greatest needs is for scholarships to help worthy students who are unable to pay the tuition fees of Yenching. This memorial scholarship, established by you and Mrs. Hall and your friends, has already been of great service and will continue to provide assistance for needy students who are preparing themselves for usefulness in this modern day of their own country.

Dear Mr. Gee:

Yours of 8th inst. is at hand and all of us who are interested in my brother's Memorial scholarship fund will carefully consider whether anything can be done on the increase of the fund during this year. In discussion with you, I did not have in mind that we would be able to do anything substantial to increase the scholarship fund but that we might be able to make some contribution even if very small to the University during this year. No improvement in the way of salary restoration has yet been made to salary workers like myself, yet industry in general is slowly and I think is surely improving, so that we have hopes before the end of the year.

With regards and best wishes for the New Year,

Dear Sir:-

Your office is sending the Peking News addressed to Mr. & Mrs. Allan E. Hall, Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co., Milwaukee. Two copies of these are being received so that you have apparently 2 cards in your mailing list. Please change one of these and mail the News to Mrs. Francis J. Hall, 14 Beaumont Road, Catonsville, Md., as Mrs. F. J. Hall is more directly interested in university news than any of us, having spent many years in Peking both during my brother's lifetime and since his death.

We thank you for this last copy of the News which is very interesting.

Yours very truly,

President J. Leighton Stuart,
Yenching University,
Peping, China.

My dear Dr. Stuart:

About ten days ago Mr. Wannamaker and I had a conversation with Mr. Dwight H. Day in regard to a possible memorial on the Yenching campus to Dr. Francis Jenks Hall. Dr. Hall, as you know, was a medical missionary under the Presbyterian Board who died in Peping about twenty-five years ago. I am sure you have fuller information with regard to his life and work than either Mr. Wannamaker or I possess.

Mr. Day's first suggestion was that possibly some building already erected on the Yenching Campus might be named in honor of Dr. Hall. However, when Mr. Wannamaker and I went over with Mr. Day an architect's plan of the buildings erected or in process of erection on the campus it soon became obvious that none of the present buildings are available for such a memorial. We, therefore, asked Mr. Day whether he might be able to help in enlisting the support of friends of Dr. Hall and of Yenching in the erection of some of the buildings now projected. In particular we discussed with him the remaining units of the Lake Front Dormitory group. We showed him detailed plans for Units C, D and E and stated that each of these units would cost around G$30,000 to G$35,000. Mr. Day said that he did not think he could secure the entire amount required to erect one of these units, but thought that he might be able to secure gifts to about G$10,000. Since in the campaign of 1928 we received undesignated gifts payable during the next few years, which have been assigned to provide for the erection of these Lake Front Dormitory units, we stated to Mr. Day that it might be acceptable to the Finance Committee here, and to the authorities on the field, to supplement ten thousand dollars in gifts specifically designated for a Francis Jenks Hall Memorial dormitory with whatever amount of undesignated funds would be necessary to complete one of the central units of the Lake Front Dormitory group. Mr. Day stated that he thought this would be a very good solution and also pointed out that a number of those who gave pledges in the 1928 campaign would be very happy to see their money used for such a memorial as this.

Mr. Day was very anxious that we secure your opinion of these proposals before anything definite is undertaken. Do you agree in general with Mr. Day's proposal that there be a Francis Jenks Hall Memorial building on the Yenching campus? Do you agree that one of the Lake Front Dormitory units might be so designated? And, lastly, do you think it a feasible plan to encourage Mr. Day to secure about ten thousand dollars in new money which will be supplemented by undesignated pledges of the 1928 campaign in such amount as is needed to complete one of the units of the Lake Front Dormitory group? Have you any other suggestions which we might pass on to Mr. Day in regard to the matter?

It is possible that very little definite progress will be made on this proposal before you come to America in the autumn. If you prefer, we might postpone the whole matter until then. I think, however, it will be well for us to take such preliminary steps as we can in the meantime in order to retain, and if possible, strengthen Mr. Day's interest in this undertaking.

Very cordially yours,

BAG-H

Dear Mr. Wannamaker:-

Let me thank you for your very considerate note received some days ago, regarding the balance of the amount of $1,000. which I had hoped to give to Yenching by January 1, 1930.

It has been a great privilege and satisfaction to have helped out in the campaign to the extent of $500. and I shall hope to help more in the future. We have never gone very far into the matter of a memorial at Yenching for Dr. Francis J. Hall, and if it comes your way to do it, will you speak of it to Dr. Stuart? I believe you know about the matter.

With my sincere wish for your success in connection with Yenching, and for all the wonderful work there, I am

Dear Mr. Day:

I have made a memorandum to take up with Doctor Stuart upon his arrival here from the West about March 11th the question of the possibility of naming a dormitory unit at Yenching the Francis Jenks Hall Memorial Building. Meanwhile, I write to ask whether you feel that we might include in the effort we are now making to raise money a special attempt to interest a group of Doctor Hall's friends and admirers in this particular unit. If you feel that it would be possible, could you give me the names and let us give special attention to these friends? Would you be willing to address a letter to each of them and let us use this letter with our publicity material and follow it up wherever possible with personal interviews?

With sincere appreciation.

Do you think that if we should name one of the Lake Front Dormitory units Francis Jenks Hall Memorial Building, this might help us to obtain the money for that particular building? You may recall that Garside wrote you on July 8th of last year of a conversation with Mr. Day of the Presbyterian Board in regard to this matter. Mr. Day has once more asked me to mention it to you.

Memorandum to Mr. Garside:

Mr. Dwight Day seems to feel that when the financial situation improves, there is a fair possibility that funds could be raised for a memorial to Dr. Francis Jenks Hall. The widow of Dr. Hall seems to feel that something could be done. Mr. Day now inquires whether we have on hand any funds which could rightly be used to meet a part of the cost of a memorial building to Dr. Hall provided new funds could be raised for this special purpose.

Will you kindly give me your judgment on this point?

in replying to your favor of October 17th.

Answering your inquiry, I am compelled to reply that I have no courage to think at this time that we would be successful in securing funds for the proposed Francis and then see what we can do. In the meantime I will try to lay some foundation upon which we can build.

I have your memorandum of October 28 concerning Mr. Dwight Day's proposal of the possibility of a memorial at Yenching in honor of Dr. Francis Jenks Hall. You will remember that Mr. Day discussed this proposal with you and me a year ago. At that time I pointed out that the Trustees had secured pledges for an amount which it is hoped will be sufficient to complete Units C, D, E, F, and G of the Lakefront Dormitory group, none of which have as yet been allocated to individual donors or to any other special designation. It should be possible for Mr. Day, Mrs. Hall, and the other friends who are interested in a memorial in honor of Dr. Hall to select one of these units as such a memorial and to secure contributions accordingly. These units are all different sizes and the costs will probably run from approximately G$10,000 to G$30,000. With this wide range they might be able to select a dormitory unit for which they could provide the entire amount required. If this were impossible they might at least select a unit toward which they could make a substantial contribution, and the Finance Committee could then allocate the balance of the amount required from the general dormitory funds already pledged in the campaign of 1928.

As yet the fund to be received from donors of the 1928 campaign for the erection of dormitories is not in hand. This objective was placed rather late in the list of needs to be met from the receipts of the 1928 campaign. We should, however, within the next year or two complete the other objectives preceding the construction of dormitories and should begin to set aside campaign receipts for this objective.

My dear Mr. Wanamaker:

Taking up the thread of correspondence again concerning the possibility of a Memorial to Francis J. Hall at Yen Ching, I find a letter from Mrs. Hall, dated June 22nd, 1930. This I enclose. Mrs. Hall thinks some funds might be raised at Mr. Hall's former church and district i.e., Brookville, Pa. She asked however whether Dr. Stuart could go to Brookville. My information is that Dr. Stuart now is back in Yen Ching. Is this correct? sw

I have turned back to Mr. Garside's letter of March 26th and the letter from Mr. E. W. Wallace, dated March 14th, and to the layout and list of buildings on the map which were sent me about that time.

The question I would like to ask now is: Are there any funds in your hands now or likely to come to your hands which might be combined with other funds to be raised by us jointly which could be constituted a single fund for the Memorial referred to? sw

It is almost impossible to raise funds among my friends just now. We shall have to wait not only for stock prices to rise, but for business itself to revive. Stock prices will go higher two or three months before a real turn in business is discernible, but it seems to me that next Spring will be the earliest time that any successful soliciting can be done among men that I know. If you have any further light on the matter of a Memorial for Francis Hall, will you let me have it?

With every good wish, I am

Dear Mr. Day:

I did not reply immediately to your letter of October 27th regarding the memorial to Dr. Hall, since it seemed that nothing could be done for some time and other matters were pressing upon us here.

I greatly appreciate your continued unselfish interest in this matter. I wish to thank you also for the letter from Mrs. Hall. When the proper time comes, we shall certainly appreciate the assistance you and she may be in position to give us in this matter.

We need a whole group of dormitories, already approved by the Board of Trustees for construction, as soon as money is available. These dormitories range in cost from Gold $10,000 to Gold $30,000. Toward this group of dormitories we have a large portion of the entire cost pledged in gifts which are to come in in the course of the next year or two. If friends of Dr. Hall should select one unit of the group, to be made a memorial to him, and raise a considerable portion of the cost of that unit, the Finance Committee of the Board will certainly be happy to allocate the balance from money pledged for dormitories and name the building for Dr. Hall. I say this without having consulted the Finance Committee, but am confident that they would take such action.

I hope the project may be put through. I shall, in accordance with a suggestion of yours sent me some time ago, raise this question with you in February 1931. It may be that the financial depression will be too long drawn out to justify the effort as early as that. If so, we can take it up a little later.

Will you please convey to Mrs. Hall our sincere thanks for her interest.

My dear Mr. and Mrs. Hall:

Such an institution as ours, located on the other side of the world, must for some years still be supported chiefly from America. We cannot hope to get enough income from endowment funds. Much of the money absolutely needed must come from gifts received each year.

If a sufficient number of our friends would put us in their budgets for such an annual gift as they can comfortably afford, this income, steady and reliable, would be the necessary addition to the interest from our endowment funds.

We do not presume to ask that you pledge yourself to an annual donation. We do inquire, however, whether you might perhaps endeavor to give us an annual contribution without binding yourself in advance.

Especially at the present time of great difficulty we should be deeply grateful if you could repeat the contribution you gave in this same month a year ago - $10.00.

At any rate, we know your heart is with us, and whatever you can do to help the University at this time is needed and will be received with grateful thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Olin D. Wannamaker
