Dear Sir:

We have in this Library a copy of your PEKING NEWS, Vol. 7 no. 3 (November 1928). Would it be possible for you to send us all the remaining issues to date? We are keenly desirous that our collection of publications issued by the educational institutions of the different countries should render the utmost service to interested readers. In this effort your publication would be of permanent service.

Will you not place the Library's name on your mailing list to receive future numbers regularly as printed? Any courtesy you may extend to us will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

E.H. Anderson,
Director.

My dear Mr. Anderson:

Complying with the request in your letter of February 18th, we are sending you herewith copies of the PEKING NEWS to date. We regret that some of them are not in very good condition and that one issue, No. 15, is missing. We have only one copy of this issue which we must of course keep for our own files.

We are placing the New York Public Library on our mailing list and you will receive future numbers regularly as they are printed.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

New York, March 8, 1929.

Mr. Olin D. Wannamaker,
American Office,
Yenching University,
150 Fifth Avenue,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Wannamaker:

We are in receipt of the letter from your office dated February 28th, by your Secretary, Miss Blanche M. Britton, relative to our request for a file of the Peking News. We also have the copies of this publication which you so kindly sent us. We are very glad indeed to have these numbers and note in your letter that our name has been placed on the complimentary mailing list of this publication.

We now have on our shelves nos. 1 to 14, 16 to 21 (April 1921 to May 1927) and vol. 7, no. 3 (November, 1927), and vol. 7, no. 3 (November 3, 1928). The fact that the issues for November, 1927 and November, 1928 have the same numbering is confusing to us. Is our file complete as it stands, or have other numbers been published which you are unable to send us? If this is true, will you be so good as to try to obtain the missing numbers for us by means of an appeal to readers through the columns of the Peking News? We feel we should have on our shelves for preservation a complete file and shall greatly appreciate any further courtesy you may extend to us.

Very truly yours,

E. H. Anderson,
Director.

Mr. E. H. Anderson, Director
The New York Public Library
476 Fifth Avenue
New York City

My dear Mr. Anderson:

Mr. Wannamaker has referred to me your letter of March 8th. I am very sorry that my letter of February 28th was not quite clear and that there is some confusion in your mind as to whether your file of the PEKING NEWS is complete.

It was the original intention of this office to make the PEKING NEWS a regular quarterly publication. This, however, has not proved practicable and in certain instances it has appeared only once or twice during the year. The file which I sent you is complete with the exception of the issue number 15 which is dated October 1924. We shall try to locate a copy of this issue for you though we are not very hopeful of securing one for you unless there should be some extra copies at the University in Peking.

The fact that the issues of both November 1927 and November 1928 bear the same number was due to a mistake on the part of the printer. We regret this error and the confusion it has caused. In 1928 there was only one issue of the PEKING NEWS, that issue being dated November 1928. Our first issue of 1929 should have reached you before the date of your letter. I am enclosing another copy for your files in case this failed to reach you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. Wannamaker

Dear Hilda:

Again we are in need of your kind offices. The New York Public Library wishes to have a complete file of the PEKING NEWS. We have one complete set of these here in the office and extra copies of all issues except Number #15 which is dated October 1924. I wonder if by any chance you have in the office there an extra copy of that issue. I have just forwarded to the Library copies of all issues except No. #15 and have informed them that we are making an effort to locate a copy of that number. If you locate one and will send it on to us, we shall greatly appreciate it.

The pictures for Mr. Hamilton arrived yesterday and have received admiring comments from everybody who has seen them. I don't believe I've ever seen any lovelier coloring than the soft reds and yellows in the colored wall that you sent. I'm sure Mr. Hamilton will like them and perhaps they will cause him to give us some more money for land. You see how mercenary I've become since I became associated with this money-raising office!

Thanks for all the news about the China New Year holidays. I know you had a wonderful time at Wo Fo Su and wish we could have been with you there.

John Leighton Tewksbury is a fine little fellow. He weighed only five pounds when he arrived but has now climbed to five and a half and seems to be going strong. Helen is so well and of course they're as happy as can be over the baby.

The Mashers are sailing this week via Suez for China. We shall miss them frightfully and I'm sure when the boat pulls out on Thursday we'll wish we were going with them back to Peking. It has been quite exciting these last few weeks finishing up the journalism fund. For so long it didn't do anything that poor Vernon was about to pass out. Then his luck changed and just now he's riding on top of the world.

With all good wishes to you,

Miss Hilda Hague
Peking, China

Dear Sir:

May we call to your attention that the New York Public Library's file of the PEKING NEWS lacks Vol. 8 no. 4 to the end of the volume and Vol. 9 no. 2 and later issues to date and in addition we need title pages and indexes, if published. Will it be possible for you to send us the issues we lack and if possible to have our name placed upon the mailing list of this publication so that it will come to us regularly in future. If you publish title pages and indexes, we lack these parts for Vols. 8 and 9. If you do not publish them, however, will you let us know so that we will have the information for our records? Dear Madam:

We have your letter of February 17, relative to our request for back numbers of "Peking News". We note that you do not compile title pages and indexes and we are glad to have the information for our records. We thank you for placing the name of the Library on your mailing list to receive future issues of your publication.

With reference to the issues of "Peking News" which we still lack and which you state are out of print, we are venturing to make a suggestion. It is that a notice be placed in a forthcoming issue of your publication to the effect that these numbers are needed by the New York Public Library and the courtesy will be greatly appreciated if readers who no longer need their copies will present them to us. This method of obtaining missing numbers is frequently employed for us by publishers and almost invariably with successful results. Anything you may do for us will be appreciated.

Dear Sir:

We have your letter of March 4th regarding back numbers of the "Peking News". After a careful check of our own files over a period of several years, I found that the numbers requested in your letter of February 6th are not only not available, but seem never to have been printed. The "News" heretofore has been published intermittently and not with any degree of regularity and since the numbers are not in our own files it is because there was no printing for those periods. You may therefore mark your records accordingly.

Attention Mr. Robert Lingel.

Dear Sir:

I regret that we have not answered your letter of June 13th sooner, but it arrived during our intensive finance drive when most correspondence was shelved for the time being.

I am forwarding a copy of your letter to Peiping, for with the exception of the Yenching News, all the publications asked for are printed in China. It is possible that our Chinese publications have been cut to a minimum because of budget difficulties, which probably accounts for your not receiving certain copies. The New York Public Library is on our mailing list here for the Yenching News and will receive all numbers when published. There has been no issue since November 1931.

In answer to your inquiry as to the official spelling of Peiping, we use the "Peiping" here, which is the latest information we have for the official name.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

May we ask if there is any possibility of our obtaining for our file the issues of NEW CHINA noted below? We have already written you in regard to securing these numbers, but so far we have not heard from you.

As it is our intention to preserve the file permanently, we feel that no effort should be spared to complete it. Do you think that an appeal through the columns of NEW CHINA to your readers might be successful in bringing us these numbers? Many people who subscribe for magazines and papers save their copies until for lack of space or for other reasons, they are glad to dispose of them, particularly if they can find a depository where they will be useful and appreciated. Many old files come to the Library as gifts, both solicited and unsolicited, and it is seldom that publishers make an appeal for us to their readers without satisfactory results. Anything further you may do toward supplying us with the missing issues of NEW CHINA will be appreciated.

If publication has ceased, will you let us know with what number it stopped appearing?

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Lydenberg:

I have your letters of December 19th, 27th and 30th, requesting that we send you certain publications for use at the Library.

Referring to your letter of December 19th, an issue of the College of Public Affairs "Quarterly News" has just been sent to my office and I enclose a copy herewith. This is the first copy issued since April 1935, and I send you one of that issue, together with the new one - November 1935.

I am sending you also a copy of Gideon Chen's book - "Tseng Kue-fan, Pioneer Promoter of the Steamship in China". This is the only copy we have in this country, but I do not think we will need it before we get additional copies from Peiping. But if I do need it within the next two months, perhaps you will send it back to us for a short time, if we request you to do this.

With reference to the "Yenching News", Vol. 14, No. 1, April 1935, is the last issue, and this one issue will complete Vol. 14 for 1935. A new issue will be forthcoming within a short time and I shall make a note to send you a copy for your files.

I shall be glad to send you other publications as they are received from Yenching University in China.

Dear Madam:

In accordance with our letter to you of January 13, we have held the copy of Gideon Chen's book, "Tseng Kuo-fan, Pioneer Promoter of the Steamship in China" for two months in case you might need it. We have received another copy in the meantime, and we shall return to you the volume you sent if you wish us to do so. It will be held awaiting your instructions.

Very truly yours

Gentlemen:

May we ask your assistance in bringing up to date our file of the publication noted below?

If you will kindly supply the material we lack so that our files may be complete, the courtesy will be much appreciated.

May we ask, also, if you will be so kind as to place the name of the Library on your mailing list to receive automatically future numbers when printed? This is most important in giving the prompt service which we attempt to supply here.

Very truly yours,

H. M. Lydenberg

Dear Sir:

We have received an issue of the Princeton Yenching News published by the College of Public Affairs of Yenching University for June 1941. Will you let us know if this publication supersedes the News Bulletin of the College of Public Affairs of Yenching University of which the last issue received is Vol. 5, No. 3 (June 1940). If there are two separate publications, we are interested in completing and continuing both files. We need News Bulletin, Vol. 5, No. 4 and later issues to date, and Princeton-Yenching News, all numbers except the issue of June 1941.

Please be assured that any courtesy you may extend to us will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

In response to your inquiry of the 14th about the "Princeton-Yenching News" published by the College of Public Affairs at Yenching University, I believe that this is simply another form of their publication called "News Bulletin of the College of Public Affairs" and that the issue you have recently received, dated June 1941, is the number following Vol. V, No. 3, of the News Bulletin. I am, however, writing to our office in Peiping to verify this impression, and if they send me any other numbers of either publication, I shall be glad to supply you with copies.

Very truly yours,

Office Secretary
