NOTES FROM THE NEW YORK OFFICE

Christmas Greetings. Our New York office in a cable received on Christmas Eve send their best wishes for Christmas and the New Year to the members of the Board of Managers, the Staff, the Student Body and Workmen. In the same cable the Corwins send their greetings to all their friends at Yenching. (Our apologies for the somewhat belated delivery of the above message)

University Budget for 1930-31. At President's Stuart's suggestion the attention of all members of staff is called to the following paragraph in a letter recently received from the New York office sent to the Treasurer's Office here at Yenching. The letter accompanied the minutes of a meeting of the Board of Trustees on Nov. 19, and comments on action taken by the Trustees affecting the present year's budget. A statement of the Trustees action in mimeographed form has already been reported by the Treasurer's Office to chairmen of Departments in the University:

"It will be seen very clearly that it is quite impossible to take care of all of the items listed, and the more one studies the situation, the more apparent it becomes that some very strenuous curtailing of expenses within the present budget must be carried out. It is even more imperative because of the exceedingly unsettled state here in America. The depression and unemployment has gripped the public imagination. Any other appeal aside from directly donating to help the jobless and needy goes a-begging at this time. Some of our denominational boards are curtailing appropriations, expenses, and personnel to the extent of a 20% decrease. It is obvious that with the churches decreasing their own obligations by any such figure as this, any individual institution would have hard sledding in an appeal for funds at the present, especially for repairs on physical plant. All kinds of securities outside of the very highest grade bonds and notes, both of which bring small interest returns, have shrunk to such a degree that people feel they have lost large sums although it is possible that they have not sold or actually realized any cash depreciation. The attitude of the Promotional Office is clearly shown in report recorded in the minutes of this meeting. Therefore expansion at this time is next to impossible, and that being the case, to hold the ground already gained is the next issue. It would seem therefore that it is a just request of the committee that the field must carefully review the current budget with the purpose of gleaning sufficient funds to care for the expenses incidental to reinsulating the heating mains. It would be of decided encouragement to the Finance Committee if the field would take this stand and assume the responsibility for caring for this particular expenditure."

SEMINARS AND LECTURES

Prof. R.H. Tawney. A discussion group with Prof. Tawney met on Saturday and Sunday of last week in the President's House. As Mr. Tawney is leaving on Tuesday for Tingsien and will not return to Yenching for about a week, announcements will be made later as to when the meetings of this group will be resumed.

Many members of our community are asking if Prof. Tawney is to give any public lectures. As far as we can gather arrangements are being made for at least one lecture which will be open to all members of our community. Announcements of this will be made as soon as the matter has been arranged.

Mr. Porter's Seminar on The Story of Chinese Philosophy will be resumed, meeting on Tuesday afternoons instead of Mondays. The time of the first meeting Jan. 13 will be 5:00 p.m.

Mr. Band's Seminar on The Philosophy of Modern Physics will not meet again until after examinations.

Mr. Rocholl's course of lectures was resumed on Monday evening of this week. Announcements regarding this course will be made later.

Mr. Rocholl's Faculty Discussion Group. All interested in international student movements are cordially invited to attend the next two meetings of the Faculty Discussion Group, Jan. 13 and 20, at 8:00 p.m. at the President's House, which will be conducted by Mr. Rocholl, his subject being "The German Student Movement".

The following officers on the Executive Board of the M.B.A.C. have been elected by ballots:

President Stuart invites all members of the faculty and their wives, and the students in the Department of Sociology to a reception to be given in his house on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 17, from 4:30 to 6:30, in honor of Dr. Leonard Hsu who is leaving early next week for America.

ATHLETICS

Opening of the Warner Gymnasium. On this coming Saturday, January 17, the Warner Gymnasium, the men's gym, will be turned over to the University by the contractors, having been completed in so far as present plans are drawn up. After that date faculty members are invited to spend as much time as they can spare in the gym participating in any of the sports which the gymnasium is adequately prepared to foster.

Indoor Sports. The basket ball floor will have been marked off for basket ball, handball, indoor baseball, volleyball, and a new sport which is being introduced in Yenching for the first time this year, Badminton. Other diversions which may be indulged in are ping pong and billiards.

Badminton's the Word! Very much interest has been shown in Badminton, and as a result of requests as well as a desire to introduce the sport, the director of physical education for the men's college has had two badminton courts marked off on the basket ball floor. They will be ready for play this next week. As a result a meeting is called for all those interested in playing badminton for Monday evening, January 19, at 8:00 o'clock in the pingpong room of the gym. when a get-together and election of officers for a faculty badminton club will be held. Tea will be served, and probably an exhibition game in badminton will be arranged. Rules of the game, for those who are not acquainted with them, will be explained. Those who wish may play handball or pingpong. Those who are interested are urged to procure squash racquets and shuttlecocks and any other equipment which is deemed necessary in preparation for organized play. Don't forget the date, place and time. Ladies are invited.

Field Hockey Finals and Friendly Game with Peking. The finals of the interunit competition, Faculty vs. Students will be postponed until the weather is a little warmer. The Varsity team will play the British Legation Guard at 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday on the South Field.

The Skating Carnival will be held this week weather permitting on Friday evening at 7:30. If the weather does not permit it will be postponed to the following day at the same hour.

Intercollegiate Finals. On Saturday afternoon at 2:00 and 3:00 the Yenching Varsity teams will compete with Tsinghua in finals in both Basketball and Football. The matches will take place on our own ground or the Hamilton Field. In the Football match the teams will compete for first place in the League and the Basketball for second place.

HELP THE NEEDY

Has anyone work for unskilled men? At the present time when very little outdoor work can be done, and there is hardly any building work, there are quite a number of men in Haitien and Chengfu who are out of work and who were previously employed as coolies on the building; under the contractors who work for Yenching. If you have any work for such men will you please let Miss Bent know, and she will find you a man to do it.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Laymer's Foreign Missions Inquiry. Some members of the Laymen's Foreign Missions Inquiry, a "fact-finding commission of the Institute of Social and Religious Research of New York City to China, India and Japan", expect to reach Peping about the middle of this week. Arrangements are being made to have the Rev. H. Paul Douglass and Dr. Edgar W. Knight visit our campus. They will be accompanied by Mr. E.H. Cressy of Shanghai. The date of their visit to Yenching will be settled after their arrival in Peping.

Visit of Mr. Heinrich Rocholl. According to original plans Mr. Rocholl who has been temporarily lecturing in the Department of Economics will terminate his stay at the university at the close of this term. He will finish his classroom work and lectures at the end of this week, but he plans to stay on the campus for about three more weeks, leaving us about February 15. Mr. Rocholl will hope to see all his American, Chinese and British friends in the university at a farewell party to be given on or about February 10. After the middle of next month Mr. Rocholl expects to complete his survey of the economic situation of the Chinese student in the central and southern part of China. For this purpose he plans to go from here to Nanking and Shanghai in order to visit a number of missionary and government universities and colleges. Mr. Rocholl will appreciate very much the cooperation of his Yenching colleagues in introducing him to prominent Chinese and foreign educators in those regions, and in assisting him in any other way in this task. Mr. Rocholl has undertaken this survey on behalf of the "International Student Service" of the "Christian World Student Federation".

Visit of Professor Ariga. The following letter has just been received by Dr. Stuart from President Gintaro Daikuhara of Doshisha University, Kyoto:

"Dear President Stuart:

I would like to express our hearty gratitude and thanks for your kindness and welcome extended to Professor Tetsutaro Ariga while he was in your university as visiting professor. I am sure that Professor Ariga's recent visit helped to multiply and strengthen the bonds of intellectual and scholarly understanding and friendship between your university and ours. If possible we hope to reciprocate the system of exchanging professors in future."

Departure of Dr. Leonard Hsu. Dr. Leonard S. Hsu of the Department of Sociology left for Shanghai on Monday afternoon. He will sail from Shanghai for the U.S.A. on January 24th on the "S.S. Hsinyo Maru". He will be at the University of Chicago for two quarters as a member of the research faculty of the Department of Sociology. After completing his work in Chicago, he hopes also to visit a few American universities and research institutes to observe the methods of teaching and research in sociology. Mrs. Hsu, on account of her health, is unable to accompany Mr. Hsu to America at this time. Unless she can join him in America later, Mr. Hsu will return in the early autumn. He wishes to express through this Bulletin his farewell to members of the Yenching community.

Error in Directory. Your attention is called to an error in the listing of the Officers of Administration, page 1 of the Directory. The words "and Acting Librarian" should appear after the name and ranking of Miss Clara W. Chung, as Miss Chung was appointed by the Library Committee acting librarian in the absence of Mr. Tien Hung-tu.

"Peking News". The office has just received a package of copies of the November number of the "Peking News" (illustrated) issued by the New York office. Any members of staff may secure copies for publicity purposes from the office.

YENCHING XMAS GIFT TO THE SALVATION ARMY

Adjutant Harris gratefully acknowledges the sums contributed from members of Yenching University which up to the present have amounted to $998.81. He mentions that several who have promised subscriptions have not yet sent these in. It would be very easy to bring the amount well over the $1000.00 mark. Perhaps this little reminder may help. There is still time to send in your subscription direct to him.

ATHLETICS

The Warner Gymnasium. Saturday, January 17, was a red letter day for Yenching in so far as the Department of Physical Education is concerned. At eleven o'clock in the morning the contractors and university authorities met in the Warner Gymnasium for the formal "turning over" ceremonies of the middle section of the gymnasium. After a tour of inspection the building was accepted. Those taking part in the ceremony were Dr. J. L. Stuart, a representative of Chancellor Wu Lei-chuan, Dr. H. S. Galt, Dean M. S. Frame and Director of Physical Education for the Men's College K. A. Wee.

With the completion of the center section, which includes the basket ball floor, balcony in the north end and an apparatus room, there only remains the south wing yet to be constructed. The ground work for this wing has already been broken, and building will begin as soon as the weather permits. In this wing, according to plans, the offices, laundry room, kitchen, store room, etc., will be located. The north wing will then be used entirely for locker and shower rooms. It is hoped the basement of the center section will be completed for ping pong and any other minor sports.

Yenching Take Second Place in Basketball League. Tsing Hua 10--
Yenta 17. At the stroke of two-four bells-- the Yenta Bats flew out onto the Hamilton field basket ball court with fire in their eyes. The Tsing Hua purples followed, doomed to follow the victors off the field at the final gun. Dr. J. L. Stuart flung the ball onto the court, the referee tooted on his horn and the Bats began flying in circles around the purples. The fast melee continued for two quarters. The score stood at 6 to 4 in Tsing Hua's favor. At half time the Yenta "coach-debater" held sway while 10 men listened in. What they were told remains a secret, but when Tsing Hua's eyes were turned toward the sun in the second half, the Bats teamed up and rolled the baskets in so fast, and flitted around at such a speed the Tsing Hua aggregation almost became too dizzy to see their own basket. Tsing Hua was trailing sadly behind. All the lung splitting yells and flag waving the Tsing Hua rooters excitably enacted couldn't put their Humpty Dumpty back on the wall, and they sank down to defeat with ten points locked in their coffers, while the Yenta Bats flew majestically away with a 1 and a 7.

Tsing Hua Victors in Football. A large crowd had gathered. They came from here. They came from there. The basket ball court was lined no less than five deep. They kept coming and by the time for the foot ball game to begin the entire soccer field was lined with fans, all eager to see somebody defeated.

Yenta and Tsing Hua were both primed. They had tied one game, 0 - 0, and this game was to decide who the champions would be. Chancellor Wu Lei-chuan kicked off, and set 22 players off at a killing pace. The ball was booted so much that if a statistician had been on the sidelines he no doubt would have estimated the distance the ball traveled in an hour as half way around the globe. Maybe that is an exaggeration, but we are certain of one thing--it was a well played, evenly matched, and jolly good game. It appeared for a while the game was going to end a tie, but in the second half the Purples tore loose and booted in a goal. Yenching failed to get an equalizer, and with still three minutes to play a misunderstanding regarding regulations occurred and the referee called the game. The final decision remains to be made by the league committee.

The activities for the day came to a close late that night when the winning contestants in the ice carnival took their prizes away. Yenta's second successful ice carnival for the year had been run off with a whiz and a swish.

Badminton. The badminton enthusiasts, twenty-eight strong, invaded the Warner Gym on Monday night, enjoying their first evening at another new sport just being introduced in the "Villa of Breeze and Mist." After a wild, and inspiring evening of play on the two courts the group convened in the pingpong room to munch cakes and sip tea. At a business meeting Sam Groff was elected Chairman-treasurer, a club was formed and all faculty members who wish may join the club for $2 each. Nets, rackets and shuttlecocks will be furnished by the club. Every Monday night from 6 to 11 the basket ball floor is being reserved for the faculty, at which time badminton will be in play. Its a good indoor game--so they say, and if you don't believe it slip the club $2 and grab a racket. Next Monday night. I'll see you at the gym.

THE READERS' FORUM

Jan. 13, 1931.

Dear Colleagues.

The most unpleasant thing I've had to do for some time was to turn down today one of the long line of Pin Min Hsueh Hsiao collectors, this man a repeater. I wonder if we couldn't find some agency in our midst to do something about it. I'm sure there is nothing more worth supporting than one of these schools well run, and such a school must often have to depend on this way of getting money by the employment of collectors on commission, a way so open to imitation and abuse by others. Will the Christian Fellowship or the Sociology Department or some other group accept this fifty dollars enclosed to help pay expenses of looking into these schools and working out a means of helping our community to do its share efficiently in their support? Is there enough sentiment among us to get behind such an effort heartily? If not, please return check.

Yours,

Hopeful

Dear Miss Editor:

Is there nothing that can be done to restrain some of the members of our otherwise fair community from pasting signs on our bridges, trees, lampposts and fences? On one occasion they even appeared over the very doorway to at least one of the public halls. No matter how vital their subject matter may be, the effect is, to put it mildly, far from beautiful. They are an affront to the aesthetic sense of students, faculty and visitors to our campus.

Yenching'er.

The Constructive Critic wonders if we must wait until there is a very serious, or fatal, accident on the campus before effective means are taken to prevent reckless driving on our roads. Most of us have noted cases of excessive speed, and several have commented upon the failure of chauffeurs to sound horns at dangerous corners. Various remedies have been suggested: (1) Those having cars with chauffeurs should warn these drivers at regular intervals; (2) Anyone seeing flagrant instances of careless driving should get the license number, if possible, and report same to the Comptroller's office; (3) families with children, especially with youngsters who ride bicycles to and from school, should frequently remind them of the dangers inherent at certain corners.

The major difficulty of course is presented by the drivers of cars from outside which come into the campus for various reasons. The undersigned, from personal experience, is sufficiently aware of the hypnotic effect of a driving wheel that he has very little confidence in the effectiveness of written regulations, and cautionary signs. His practical suggestion is the erection of sharp V-shaped depressions or ridges in the roads a short distance before each dangerous intersection or curve so that it is virtually impossible to speed past them without throwing the occupants of the car through the roofs thereof.

The Constructive Critic.

LECTURES, SEMINARS and DISCUSSION GROUPS

The Faculty Discussion Group will not meet again until after vacation week. The next meeting will be held on February 17.

Dr. Paul Monroe. Many on the campus have been asking whether it has been possible to arrange for a lecture from Dr. Monroe. Word has just come that Dr. Monroe has had to decline the invitation to speak at Yenching owing to the short time at his disposal in this part of the country.

Prof. Twaney will not be able to continue the discussion groups begun last week. His visit to Tingsien was a little longer than he expected and he left Yenching on Tuesday morning. Those who heard him speak on Monday afternoon felt they were indeed fortunate in being able to hear even this one lecture, and wish very much that it might have been possible for him to stay a longer time with us.

COMPOUND SUPPERS

On account of examinations and vacation week the Lang Jun Yuan and the East Compound suppers will not be held this month.

The South Compound and Southeast Campus groups will meet at the regular times.

THE SOCIOLOGY CAR

You may be interested to know that the Sociology Car has just been thoroughly renewed. It looks more dignified. Comfortable has been its fame for some days. It takes six persons with ease, and the price is $7.50 including road toll for a trip to Peking within five hours; each person needs to pay only a little more than one dollar. Just phone to Mr. Wang of the Sociology Office, McBrier.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY NEWS NOTES

Recent publications: "Iodine in Nutrition in North China", W.H. Adolph and S.C. Ch'en, Chinese Jour. Physiol., Nov. 1930. "A 4000-year Food Experiment". W.H. Adolph, Scient. American, Dec. 1930.

Sr. S.D. Wilson writes from Chicago: "Most of my time is given over to an Organic problem; the results are exactly the opposite from what we had expected to findThe Chicago papers have much to say about the bandits in the Peiping region. One dispatch stated that all Americans had been ordered into the legation.....I am driving an Essex. We drove out recently to a distant suburb. While there it snowed and we came back 41 miles over the soft snow: I learned a lot the first few miles."

The Department of Chemistry is cooperating with the Mass Education Movement at Tingsien in their nutrition program. A visit to Tingsien was made in November. Miss Liu Hsi-chen, who completes her master's degree in nutritional chemistry this month, goes there to take charge of the field work for the movement. It is planned that the laboratories at Yenching shall assist in conducting the purely laboratory problems that develop, animal feeding, etc. The Tingsien area offers an unusual opportunity for conducting well-controlled large scale nutrition experiments with rural groups.

NOTES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF EUROPEAN LANGUAGES

Our new member of Staff, Mr. Eric Montmollin, who is on his way from Switzerland, expects to arrive in Peking about the first of February.

THE CHILDREN'S SKATING CARNIVAL

This popular event was favoured with a beautiful afternoon on Saturday last and there was a good turn out of enthusiastic contestants for the various competitions. 2nd. -- Helen Adolph, "Mephistopheles".
1st. Boy, Eric Parr, "Wilfred of the Gugnuncs"

Tot's -- -- (under 7½) 1st. Ernest Adolph, 2nd. Alan Wilson.
Backward Race, handicap. 1st. Pat Parr, 2nd. Larry Mead, 3rd

This Programme was brought to a conclusion by a most exciting "Shinny Ice Hockey Match" of 7 minutes each way, and resulted in the "Princeton Seven" "swiping" the "Harvard Aggregation" to "the tune of 2 goals to 1!" III

The thanks of all concerned are due to the very efficient costume judges and all the willing helpers who acted as judges and stewards of the various events, and especially to K.A. Wee & A. Koo of the dept. of Physical Education who worked so hard to give the youngsters a most enjoyable afternoon's sport.

THE YENTA OLD WOMEN'S HOME

You may be interested to know that this new venture of the Yenta Relief Federation is now open, with three old women installed under the care of a capable matron. We cannot speak too highly of the splendid work done by a group of Sociology students under the direction of Mr. Chang Hung-chun, who have superintended the repairs to the house, furnished and equipped it, investigated all the cases reported in, and who are now looking after the actual running of affairs. The home was opened some weeks ago and three old women were received, all qualified in regard to health, age, and lack of visible means of support. But the idea was too new for them, these poor old beggarwomen. Why were they made to take baths, why were they only allowed out once a week, why could they not bring in with them all their pitiful collection of rags, broken furniture, etc., and above all why were they being provided with house, food and clothing, all free of charge? Their fears and suspicions were aroused and they fled. The flight of one was only temporary, however, and she is back again and quite happy now, though over eighty and blind in one eye. The other two have not yet returned, but two others have been found to fill their places.

If any of you would like to visit the home, members of the committee would be more than happy to take you down. Please let Miss Hague know if you would like to go.

THE GERMAN MINISTER VISITS YENCHING

On Thursday, January 29, President Stuart gave a tea party in honor of His Excellency, the German Minister to China, Dr. E. von Borch and the German Chargé d'Affaires, Mr. Fischer, to which a number of Faculty members and students were invited. After a long "tea ceremony" and chatting with the popular German diplomat, a informal meeting was held, in which the President, the German Minister, the German Chargé d'Affaires, a German speaking Chinese student and Mr. Scholl as German faculty member of Yenching, delivered short speeches. Dr. v. Borch, who has been for thirty years in the German service in China and has inaugurated the new German policy in China of entire equality and bilateral treaties, leaves shortly for Germany and will not return to his Peiping post. So the party, held in the President's House, was at the same time a farewell reception for the Minister, who has for so long served the Sino-German interests.

The Yenching Community at large heard at that tea party for the first time, that plans are under way, to establish a German Yenching Institute for the exchange of German and Chinese students and scholars. Dr. v. Borch promised his audience in his farewell speech that he would do every thing in his country to further the Sino-German relations with Yenching University. He can do this all the better as he leaves the diplomatic service of his country to devote himself now entirely to purely cultural tasks.

Before the tea the party paid an extensive visit to the campus and the whole grounds of Yenching, Mr. Stephen Tsai acting as a guide.

THE BOYD GYMNASIUM OPEN TO ALL WOMEN IN THE UNIVERSITY

On Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 6:00-7:00, the Boyd Gymnasium will be open to all women who wish to participate in any kind of physical exercise--recreational or otherwise. This will not be a class, but help on apparatus work will be most cheerfully given. The lockers, dressing rooms and showers are now ready for service so you may dress and shower here and enjoy all the comforts of home, both before and after exercise. No reservations are necessary--merely wear appropriate costume such as bloomers, middie and tennis shoes, or their equivalent.

MR. ROCHOLL'S FAREWELL

By invitation of its Chinese President, Dr. Chang Po Ling of Nankai University, Tientsin, Mr. Heinrich Rocholl will spend five days on the campus of this Chinese institution, in connection with his survey of the economic situation of Chinese students. Mr. Rocholl will go to that city next Monday and will not return before February 13; he will stay at Nankai as a guest of the University. = On Saturday, February 14; there will be a departmental farewell dinner, which the chairman of the Department of Economics, Professor Dr. Huang, is giving in his home in honour of Mr. Rocholl. = On Monday, February 16, Mr. Rocholl will leave for Nanking and Shanghai; preparations for his stay in the latter city are in the hands of President Herman C.E. Liu of Shanghai College, who is also the President of the China = ISS = Committee, and of Mr. E.M. Hayes of the Shanghai YMCA. The German Minister to China, Dr. v. Borch, who leaves next Sunday for the South, on his return to Germany, will also introduce Mr. Rocholl to some prominent people in that region.

Mr. Rocholl hopes to see his Chinese and foreign friends of Yenching at a farewell party to be given on Saturday, February 14, at 4:30 p.m. in the President's House. Special invitations will be sent out later.

PERSONNEL

We are all very sorry to lose Mr. Shafer from our Community and wish him all success as he takes up his work again at Nanking University; and are very happy to have Mrs. Shafer stay on with us until the end of next term.

Mr. Wolferz who has recently undergone one operation on his eye is still in the P.U.M.C. The first operation was not successful, but cabled word has come from Austira that a modified form of this operation may still be tried in an endeavor to save his eye. It is not possible yet to tell how soon he may be allowed to leave the hospital, but we all hope that this second operation which was to be performed on Wednesday morning may be a complete success.

NEWS FROM ABROAD

As usual this Christmas season has brought news of our friends abroad, which the Bulletin is very willing to share with all members of the community. If anyone has any letter items of general interest, we will be happy to insert these next week:

Yenching Alumnus. Mr. Homer T. Wang writes from Colorado where he is studying at the School of Mines in Golden City: "Two and a half months have elapsed since I came to this School, during which time I have been very busy. This school, as you know, is located at the foot of the Rocky Mountains and is famous for her practical work. The people here have practically no racial prejudice, and are kind to foreign students. This semester we have four new Chinese students coming from M.I.T., Peking National University, Peiyang and Yenching. Four of us have already our B.S. and have specialized in different branches. I am taking Petroleum Engineering and both the President and my department are trying to arrange that I have practical experience during the summer. If there are any students planning to take some courses in Mining Engineering or Geophysics, I suggest it is better to take their courses here, for this school is a professional school and has only four hundred students, thus the students have the chance to have contacts with their teachers. This school offers a scholarship exempt from tuition and fees for four years to the foreign students every year. I am very happy to tell you that I won this scholarship this year."

Miss Cheney writes from Madison Wis. "I'm here living with an aunt and having a fine time studying again. Was in the East last month at a missionary conference and saw Ruth Stahl there. Had a day in New York--visits with Chen Wei Kun and Kung Lan Chen and a wee visit with Marnie and Augusta. Father and Mother are coming soon to spend the winter months with me while my aunt is in the south. Had a nice little visit with Miss Newell yesterday as we were both studying in the document room of the Library. She is teaching some sociology classes in the University and doing some research work for Prof. Fish of the History Department. Best regards to everyone". Enclosed in Miss Cheney's letter was a clipping from the newspaper headed "The Yenching University Faculty Student Reunion to be at Rood Home Friday." Yenching University students and faculty at present enrolled in the University of Wisconsin will be entertained at a supper reunion party by Miss Jane Newell Friday evening (Oct. 31) at the home of Mrs. James Rood, 316 Virginia Terrace (where Miss Newell is now living), to share reminiscences of old Peking and impressions of new Wisconsin. Although in some ways more closely affiliated with Harvard on account of the Yenching-Harvard Institute for Study of Chinese Culture, and with Princeton whose alumni have been in large part the founders and supporters of the Yenching College of Social Sciences, this famous Chinese university is well represented in Madison this year--former students meeting side by side with the faculty in Wisconsin halls of learning. Among the Yenching Faculty doing research here this year are Miss Monona Cheney, B.H. Li, Miss Jane Newell and W.F. Woo. Last year two Wisconsin students spent their junior year at Yenching, John Davies and Gordon Meiklejohn, son of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Meiklejohn. These students are considered Yenchingians now."

Mr. Hsu Pao-chien writing from Sceaux, France, asks that a line be inserted in the Bulletin carrying his best wishes for the Christmas and New Year season to all his friends at Yenching. He has been so busy that he has found it impossible to write cards to everyone. Writing again on Jan. 5 from Geneva: "I got in from Lyons this afternoon, and Philippe de Vargas came in to see me for half an hour. He is leaving tonight for U.S.A. via Paris. You probably have heard that I am definitely planning to spend 1931-1932 in New York City. The Union Theological Seminary has already granted me a fellowship and an offer to teach. I shall sail for the U.S.A. in June. I shall be here for ten days, and then must travel again. This time to Belgium, Holland, England and Scotland."

Letters have come recently from both Mr. and Mrs. Hildabrand. Early in 1930 they moved to Manila where Mr. Hildabrand is now connected with the W.S. Barstow Co., of Reading Pa., which is building hydro-electric plants, in the Islands. Mr. H. writes "There is no coal to speak of here and the use of electricity is increasing at a remarkable rate; little towns like Haitien and Chengfu having lights and using electricity for power. The work here has been very interesting and in some cases spectacular. Labor here is much more expensive than in China. Economic conditions in the Islands at present are perhaps better than in any other Oriental country. I have never seen a beggar in the Islands. There is some political unrest among the politicians who keep up a campaign of varying intensity for independence." Mr. Hildabrand's work takes him into the interior but he usually gets up to Manila once each month and Mrs. Hildabrand and Carl-Nils go down and stay with him one weekend. Mrs. H. writes of her life in Manila; "on the whole life is much the same here as in China and other oriental places. At the church we are now quite at home. I belong to the choir and try to do my share in the work there. For recreation we play bridge, dance sometimes, drive, and so on. Instead of skating we swim, and play golf a lot, tennis a little. We like Manila and have made many friends. We would like to send a greeting through the Bulletin to our many friends at Yenching. I am sure we will be back in China sooner or later either visiting or permanently and we would like at such a time to feel that we were not altogether forgotten by our friends up there." The Hildabrand's address is P.O. Box 2560, Manila, P.I.

Mr. B.H. Li writes of steady progress in his work at the University of Wisconsin, and of many lecture engagements in Madison, Milwaukee and other places.

A recent letter from Mr. George Loehr sends Christmas greetings to all his Yenching friends. He is living with his mother and sister at 48 Via Cairoli, Florence, and is apparently enjoying life. He states that while in Geneva he was delightfully entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Huang Tze-fang, who cordially invite all Yenching travellers to call on them. Dr. Huang may be addressed c/o Dept. of Public Health, League of Nations, Geneva. He was formerly a part time lecturer in Yenching. Mr. Loehr writes: "More than ever at this holiday season my thoughts turn several times a day to Yenching and my friends there. I wish each and all the very best of happiness and success in work and life in this coming year. In January I am scheduled to lecture to the British Institute here on China. You may imagine how difficult that will be in at most an hour, nevertheless I shall enjoy the attempt just for the love and honor of my adopted land."

Mr. H.B. Sharman has very thoughtfully sent several little pamphlets, describing in some detail the life and activities of the Graduate Center for Social and Religious Study recently founded under the directorship of Dr. Henry T. Hodgkin, at Pendle Hill, Wallingford, Pa. Mr. Sharman is giving regular courses on The Life of Jesus. He and Mrs. Sharman are settled in their new home, "Tumble Brook", and says there is just one thing lacking, "the Yenching Riding Club and Wu Pei Fu". They send their warmest regards to all our good friends at Yenching". If any friends of the Sharmans, who have not yet seen these bulletins of Pendle Hill, would like to do so, please notify Miss Hague.

Miss Marnie Spoor we learn is living with her family in New York and studying English Literature at Columbia University.

Miss Augusta Wagner is continuing her work in Economics at Columbia University and is acting as assistant to Miss Butler at Johnston Hall, the dormitory for graduate women at Columbia.

Miss Ruth Stahl writes of a busy autumn with attendance at mission meetings. She expected to go to Cincinnati Conservatory the first week of January and is looking forward to taking up her musical studies again.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

It is requested that in all of our correspondence, and printed matter concerning official actions, the term local currency (L.C.) be used instead of Mexican or Mex. It is extremely desirable that a word which refers to an entirely obsolete currency be deleted now from our financial vocabulary.

YEMTA CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP NOTES

The University Service next Sunday morning will take the form of a special service on this day of prayer for students all over the world. Several students will conduct the service, which will have musical and other features appropriate to this occasion. Dean Chao will preach.

NOTES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

Dr. Robert J. McCandliss has very kindly consented to give to our whole community a free concert on the evening of the 21st of February (Saturday) at 8 P.M. in the Bashford Auditorium. His program will contain quite a few oratoric selections, some of these repeated by request from "The Messiah" and other interesting arias. The remainder of the program will depend upon the occasion and the time. Mrs. McCandliss will accompany him. We are indeed highly favored and exceedingly gratified by their generous response to our request.

The Chorus will begin its regular rehearsal on Thursday evening, the 12th at 6:45 P.M. in Sage Hall. This semester we will enjoy one of the finest choral works of all time and the greatest achievement of the last century, viz: "The German Requiem" by Johannes Brahms. This composer epitomizes the salient features of his two great predecessors, John Sebastian Bach and Ludwig Van Beethoven. In such a capacity he has not been excelled by his successors nor is he likely to be. The Chorus is a community organization and is open to all. The only requirement for membership is you must love singing. Whether or not you have a voice or training, if you enjoy singing in a group you are welcome!

The Tuesday afternoon lectures on various phases of music, as announced, will be discontinued for this semester.

Mr. Li Pao Chen, graduate of last year is spending Thursday afternoons on the campus. He will be glad to augment his piano class here for children by four persons. Either get in touch with him or with the Music Dept.

We have for sale the following instruments: 1 violin (large size); 1 violin (children's size); 2 guitars; 1 banjo; 1 flute; 1 viola; 1 violoncello. One grand piano, in good condition and reasonable.

A series of free and charge concerts is being arranged by the Department during the semester some of the performers as follows: Mr. Croop violin and Mr. Stass, pianist; The Salvation Army Musical corps; Mr. Benjamin Ch'en, baritone; A varied program by Language School Students, etc.

CHINA NEW YEAR GREETING FROM DR. H. W. DUCE

Hartford Seminary Foundation
Hartford, Conn.
Jan. 1, 1931.

Dear Friends at Yenching:

Although I have not had the pleasure of meeting many of you face to face (for practically all my service for Yenching has been, as a wanderer away from local Yenching); I call you "friends" in the sense of our being united in a common devotion to Yenching ideals and spirit, eager to express in character and life an ever greater "freedom through truth for service".

I have been accustomed each year at its beginning to send you a word of greeting for the New Year. This should reach you in February, and if it does it will mark almost exactly a decade plus one year since, in February 1920, we began here in America in a very definite way to gather together the forces which were to effect our share in the transformation in the Yenching that was, to the Yenching that is, and is to be.

Then our main assets were three:

- . A worthy history of the three institutions which were uniting.
- . A moderate and comparatively small support from America and England, supplemented by a few gifts in China.
- . A fund of $200,000. invested in a site in the City-- a site which some of us felt was inadequate for our larger purposes in the long future.

Aside from the above, "Yenching" was on paper, - or in hopes and faith! The first lay-out of the buildings was made before we even knew where the new site was to be. But the early plans were made so carefully it is quite wonderful to note how closely they coincide with the Yenching as it actually is to-day. Who, in 1920, could have dreamed that in a decade we would have such a beautiful campus with a lake and even an island in it (!) and some fifty odd buildings all in cement? The original estimates (as the records show) were made in three columns; Column I. showed what we need just to be able to get under cover on the new site; Column II showed what would enable us to do our work with some degree of adequacy; Column III indicated what we would like to have in the near indefinite future. Already Yenching is in Column III. but, like a lively, lusty growing child, she calls for "more"!

When we think of the Yenching of to-day with its campus of wondrous beauty, its adequate buildings, its large faculty and student body, we can but repeat those words which were sent over the first telegraph line ever erected: "What hath God wrought"!

For more than a decade my heart and mind have been devoted to sharing with you in the upbuilding of Yenching, wherein much thought and attention were centered in the material plant; but never was I interested in these "things" save in my hope and faith that the Faculty and Students of Yenching, in cooperation with the Board of Managers, would transform these material values (which are important) into spiritual values (which are vastly more important). Many of you have shared this eager desire. Much has been accomplished. And this is well. But the opportunity is boundless; I pray that you may be equal to it -- equal to making the University motto a living bright reality.

Recently I have been wondering if it would not be possible on some suitable day (Easter?) in the early Spring, for all who might be willing, to put aside one fixed hour for meditation, when each one would go to his or her room, or search out some quiet spot on the campus and devote a few unhurried moments to pondering a few direct personal questions like these:

1. Am I contributing to the life and influence of Yenching all that is within my power?

2. How may I contribute more to its growth and strength?

I have a conviction, born of long observation of educational institutions, that there is a close proportion in what one gives in student days to what one receives. I would that you receive much because you give much.

We may think of the words of the Psalmist and say: "God has been merciful unto us and blessed us".

And in view of these blessings we may remind ourselves that these blessings have been given "that His way may be known on earth, his salvation among all nation"

Ever most truly yours,

(signed) H. W. Luce.

We are most happy to have with us here this year from Yenching Miss Sun Hsu-chen and Mr. Liang Chuan Chen. They seem to be most happy in their work and we are enjoying them very much indeed.

NOTES FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Schedule Cards. The Registrar's Office has always had trouble in collecting the schedule cards from the faculty every semester. These cards are very useful to several offices and also the community in general. If your cards are still on your desk, won't you please fill them out and send them back to the Registrar's Office at once?

Make-up Grades. According to the University Calendar, the last day for students to take make-up examinations or to make up incomplete work is Wednesday, Feb. 18 for this semester. And the grades are expected to be handed in to the Registrar's Office within three days after the work is made up. If you have any such grades to give, be sure to send them in to the Registrar's Office within this week.

NOTES FROM THE COLLEGE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Mr. J.D.H. Lamb, Mr. Gideon Ch'en, and Miss Dora Bent leave for Shanghai on Thursday to attend the Conference on the People's Livelihood which is to be held in Shanghai, February 22nd-28th. This Conference is under the auspices of the National Christian Council's Committee on Christianising Economic Relations, for which Mr. J. B. Tayler is one of the secretaries. The promoters of the Conference hope, by pooling the experience of economists, business men, social workers and reformers, to help in devising more concrete plans for the betterment, and to assist in coordinating and in making more effective the efforts already being made in different parts of the country, towards the improvement of the People's Livelihood. In particular they wish to learn in what ways the Christian groups can best play their part and bear their full share in this national enterprise.

Mr. Lloyd Free and Mr. Matt Taylor left Yenching on Tuesday afternoon in order to make an extended tour, particularly of the industrial centres. They will visit Tientsin, Shanghai, Nanking, Hankow, etc. While in Shanghai they will attend the meetings of the Conference on the People's Livelihood.

We would like to express our very deep sympathy to Miss Wang Chieh-I whose mother died in Peking last week.

FACULTY CONFERENCE ON TEACHING

Recent discussions in the Conference relative to the development of students' interest, and the methods and results of examinations, have drawn attention to certain fundamental conceptions in the process of higher education. Accordingly, the Conference has decided to consider at its next meeting, which is to be held on Thursday evening, February 19th, new plans for college education which are being tried out in certain American institutions. A few members of the Conference have been requested to make brief reports on new educational features in the following institutions:

Harvard University;
University of Chicago;
The "Experimental College" of the University of Wisconsin;
Swarthmore College;
Rollins College.

A consideration of the schemes of education which these institutions represent will naturally lead to a discussion of fundamental processes and results in higher education, and this theme will be taken up at a subsequent meeting.

All members of the University Faculty who are interested in various types and methods of University instruction are cordially invited to attend the meetings of the Conference.

MEETING OF THE YENCHING WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

A group of very fine leaders will direct our thoughts along various aspects of the Christian Life. The first service will be held on Thursday, February 26 and to the topic for that day will be, "The Christian Life and the Secret of Joy."

ATHLETICS

Badminton. So much interest has been shown in Badminton that the men's gym has now been assigned to the faculty for two nights a week - Monday and Friday. The club members, which total twenty-five in number are finding the new sport quite recreative and diverting. From 8 to 10 every Monday and Friday nights plenty of faculty athletic activity can be seen gracing the floor of the gymnasium.

Basket Ball. The first "Big" night in the Warner Gymnasium will be held on Thursday night of this week when the Faculty Inter-unit Championship basketball team will go up against the Yenta Varsity five. A very thrilling and interesting game is expected, and all the faculty enthusiasts are urged to come out and back the team. The game is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock.

NOTES FROM THE YWTA CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Pastors for Servants and Workmen. Mr. K.Y. Ma (Ma Wen-cho) has recently accepted the responsibility of being associated with Mr. Ma Ch'ing-hsuan and Mr. Li Jung-fang in a pastoral capacity for servants and workmen. These three men are quite enthusiastic and we trust that all employers of workers will give ample opportunity to their employees to attend church services and engage in other forms of fellowship with one another. In case any of them is ill or in trouble, please be sure to notify one of the chaplains who will be glad to render their personal services.

On March 1, at 3:30 a special service, with extra music, will be held at the regular place of worship. All members of our community are cordially welcomed to this service. It is designed not only for workmen and servants but all who enjoy a simpler service than the morning one.

NOTES FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

The Registrar's Office has just received from the Institute of International Education a bulletin containing practically all of the Fellowship and Scholarships open to foreign students for study in the United States. Those interested may consult this bulletin in the Registrar's Office upon application with Mr. Ti.

NOTICE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE UNIVERSITY COUNCIL

The Secretary of the University Council would like to serve a standing notice to all the members of the Council at the beginning of the semester that since it is the desire of the members to get copies of the Agenda before they come to the meeting, items for the agenda must also be sent to the secretary before the agenda is mimeographed. In order to have the agenda distributed on the Saturday previous to the meeting, all items must be in the secretary's hands at the latest by Friday. Whatever cannot catch the regular issue will have to be filed with the Chairman at the meeting.

SEMINARS AND CONFERENCES

Faculty Conference on Teaching. The next meeting of the Conference will be held on Thursday evening, March 5th. The following are the topics for consideration:

The General or comprehensive examination as the consummation of a College Course, and the Form of Education for which it stands.

- What is the relation of this form of higher education to the "credit system" in American Education?
- If these two systems are compared, what are their respective advantages and disadvantages?
- Can a scheme of higher education be devised which will secure the major advantages and avoid the major disadvantages of both systems?

Seminar in Philosophy of Modern Physics. This Seminar has started again for the second Semester; and it is announced that the subjects under discussion will be more definitely philosophical than last semester. Suggested topics:

- The Reality of the External World.
- Whitehead's Philosophy of Space and Time.
- Is The Universe finite; is it "running down"?
- Time-flow, Process and Reality.
- Science and the Ultimate Reality.
- Is Life and its World Rational?

Please come, if you are interested in this kind of thing; the success of the seminar depends on the quantity and quality of contributions to the discussions, specially with these less technical (scientifically speaking) topics. Every Friday afternoon at 4-30 p.m. Biology 115.

SOCIAL EVENTS

College of Natural Sciences Tea. Dr. and Mrs. T.T. Lew cordially invite students and faculty members of the College of Natural Science to tea at their home, 51 South Compound, on Sunday afternoon, March 1st, between 4:00 and 5:30 o'clock.

SONG RECITAL

There will be a song recital by Dr. R. J. McCandliss on Friday evening February 27, at 9:15 in the P.U.M.C. Auditorium in aid of the Dow Hospital of the Presbyterian Mission, Peking. (Tickets for sale in the President's Office).

STORIES IN CHINESE FOR CHILDREN

In China today, one of the things the children lack, is an adequate supply of clean, wholesome, story books, suitable for the tinies to hear read aloud, and for the older ones to read for themselves. Miss Tseng, of the Department of Education, has prepared in connection with the Kindergarten Primary Formal Course, such a book, under the title "Stories for Children". We think every family of children, between two, and twelve years old would find, both amusement and instruction in its pages. Rhymes, Nature stories, legends, Fairy tales all find a place in this attractive well-printed collection.

For the convenience of Faculty Families, it will be on sale, in the kindergarten building, for one week, March 2nd-10th. From 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Price 80¢.

GENERAL

Telephone Rings. Members of our community may be interested to know that our telephone operator is using an ingenious system of rings by which it is possible to know what part of the campus is calling you before you go to the phone:

If you hear one ring it is the East Compound
" " two " " " South "
" " three " " " Lang Jun Yuan
" " four " " " Peking
" " one long and one short ring, it is the Women's College
" " " " " two " " " " Men's College.

Changli Produce for Sale. A new agency has been recently established in Peking for the Changli Canning Factory products - fruit and biscuits. They now have peaches, pears, seedless grapes and the long white grapes. The grapes are especially good in salads and fruit cocktails. The 1½ lb. tins are 37¢ and the 2 lb. tins are 50¢. The biscuits are 30¢. For sale at the Peking Butchery and Sausage Factory, No. 31, Hatamen Street. (at the corner of the Hutung leading to the Methodist Mission) Just now when imported goods are mounting so high, these prices make a real appeal!

Sociology Car. Anyone who left a stick in the Sociology Car may claim it from the Sociology Office. In view of the unceasing cost of gasoline, the price of the Car will be raised to $8.50 from the 25th of February.

JE NAO TRIP

Want To See Mei Lan Fang? Arrangements are being made for all the Je Nao members who wish to take advantage of the opportunity to attend Mei Lan Fang's performance in Peking on the evening of Saturday, March 7. Through the kindness of Mr. Chang Tung Chun Mei has consented to put on a special play for those going in from Yenching, providing we can get a large enough group. Those Je Nao members who wish to go, and a special invitation is extended to all faculty members also, to notify Mr. Lawrence Mead at their earliest convenience.

PERSONNEL

President Stuart leaves for America. Quite unexpectedly two cables came the latter part of last week from our New York office strongly advising President Stuart to leave as early as possible for America in connection with efforts being made to secure endowment for the College of Natural Sciences. A reply was sent indicating a decision not to leave at this time which brought a further cable urging more strongly that the trip be made. The Faculty Executive Committee has, therefore, advised the President to comply with the summons of the Trustees but with the understanding that he be back on the campus before Commencement. He is leaving the end of next week to catch the Empress of Canada sailing from Yokohama on March 12. As usual, Dr. Galt will act in the absence both of the Chancellor and himself.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Andy Koo on the birth of a son on February 19.

Everyone is invited to come and watch the games. The Boyd Gymnasium will be open to visitors on Saturday, March 7 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to come and inspect the building and apparatus during those hours. At 4:45 there will be a Volley Ball game which will be the final game in the inter-dormitory tournament.

The Warner Gymnasium. With a handful of faculty members and faculty wives spectating from the balcony height and a number of students occupying side-line seats Vernon Nash and Sam Groff at forward positions and K. A. Wee at guarding position sallied forth with a couple of courageous students, against a student aggregation that claims a top position in the local athletic league. The faculty started things rolling with the first basket when Nash looped the ball thru the hoop in the first few minutes of play. But from then on the sky changed tints and the Yenta Bats flitted victoriously around the Demons. Huang replaced a student in the second quarter, but because he had just finished eating had to be taken out because of illness. Nash had his old basket eye, and tallied up two points practically everytime he got the ball under his own basket. Due to a recent seige of the flu he was not able to play a hard game, however. Not much can be said for Groff. He wandered around over the floor like a somnambulist. On the other hand, tho, Wee played in his true Wesleyan style, preventing more shots of the opponents than he was able to get himself--although he sunk the ball in the basket for at least eight of the faculty total. In the third quarter the faculty held the Bats nearer the floor and made nine points to their two. Interest was added to the game the last half when Bill Band tried to make some of his theoretical science practical. He had not seen a basket ball game before, did not know the rules and had beginners luck in passing the ball to his opponents. But he did quite well, considering. The game ended at 26 to 42.

Badminton. It is rumored around that the faculty badminton club has scheduled a match with the strong Tsing Hua shuttle-slappers on Monday night, March 2, beginning at 8 o'clock. This is the first outside competition for the faculty, and opinions as to their strength are divided. An interesting evening is assured. Everybody is invited.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Memorial for Dr. Sun Yat Sen. Thursday March 12, will be observed as a University holiday in memory of the death of Dr. Sun. A memorial service will be held in Bashford Auditorium at 9:00 a.m., at which all members of the staff and student body are expected to be present. All classes will be suspended for the day.

Departmental Bulletins. The New York office has made repeated requests that all departmental bulletins be sent to the office as soon as they are published. Will the heads of departments please take note of this and see that 75 copies of each new bulletin published are sent to Mr. Garside, 150 Fifth Avenue.

YENCHING CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Hymn-Book ready! On the coming Sunday there will be a song service, in which the new hymn-book, called "The Christian Fellowship Hymns" will be used. The book is the result of cooperation between the Chaplain for the regular University service and the organist. It has a number of unique features. In the first place, all the hymns are translated by one person. Secondly, it is an experiment, and the hymns are translated in different literary styles. Thirdly, it aims at being indigenous. Fourthly, all the lines are placed between staves of music so that those who sing the hymns can sing them according to the music notes with much less difficulty than if the words and music were in different places. Fifthly, it is a hymn-book of our own Christian Fellowship, and is a veritable Yenching product. It is hoped that a series of songs will form the substance of the sermon in the service. The book can be secured at the office of the English Secretary in the School of Religion building. The price of the book is one dollar per copy. Criticisms and comments will be welcome to the authors.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM MR. S. J. CHUAN

March 2, 1931.

To Faculty Members and Students.

Dear Friends:

Fully believing in that my main usefulness to the University was over and that I should vacate my office to enable the University to undertake to reorganize its business administration according to new conditions and needs, which I considered quite necessary, also realizing that opportunity for me to serve Yenching and the society lay elsewhere, I tendered my resignation to the authorities of the University a year and a half ago. I have stayed on until now only upon the insistent request of the same to help out in certain emergencies which are all past now. At the end of the last semester I, therefore, formally reminded both the Chancellor and the President of the fact that I could not delay any longer in carrying out my resignation. As all plans for reorganization are decided upon now, I expect to vacate my office during this month. Much as I hate to leave my Alma Mater, I sincerely feel that the time has come for me to seek opportunity for service outside of Yenching. Although I shall soon sever my official connection with Yenching, I will, however, continue to serve her interests in any possible capacity I can.

Permit me to express through the medium of the bulletin my deep appreciation of your co-operation, thoughtful consideration, various courtesies and kindnesses in dealings both official and private.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) S. J. Chuan.

Yenching Faculty Bulletin (March 5, 1931)

NOTES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

A Musical Treat of the finest caliber is to be afforded our community on the evening of March 19th when Mr. Croop, violinist, Mr. Stass, pianist, and Mr. Andreyeff, cellist will play the trio written by Tschaiakowsky in memory of his teacher F. Rubenstein. The music represents various aspects of the life of the one memorialized and is indeed beautiful. Mr. Croop will then play a concerto by Max Bruch, followed by a miscellany of favorite violin selections. The whole program will appear in the bulletin for next week. The proceeds for this concert will go into a fund to help students of Mr. Croop in Yenching, who by reason of the extra charge for lessons and their financial condition are not able to pay the full fee. Since it is a benefit concert, we are allowing each individual to contribute what he can in lieu of an admission price. The minimum for students is 40 cents. Tickets will be for sale in the President's Office beginning with next Monday.

NATURAL SCIENCE COLLEGE SOCIAL ACTIVITIES.

The Committee in the above wish to make a preliminary announcement that towards the end of March it is planned to hold a Social Gymkhana in the Warner Gymnasium. There will be group games under capable group leaders - games in which all can join if they come in rubber shoes without heels, there will be competitive races and department races, an exhibition, ping-pong of the comprehensive variety, music and surprise item: hun je nad! The committee wishes to thank Mr. K. A. Yee for his cordial invitation to use the Men's Gymnasium. Tentative Date: Wednesday 25th March.

ATHLETICS

The faculty basketball team will be out to conquer again next Tuesday night when they will play, according to the Indoor League schedule the "Cossacks" one of the hoop aggregations of the students. The faculty demons have done splendid work last semester, truncating all the interunit teams and giving the Varsity Bats hard practices. The faculty "tail-tails" have also been showing good spirit by rendering hearty support on the side-lines. It is expected the same spirit will be kept up and in addition to that more faculty hoopsters will be able to come out. The game is schedule to begin at 7 o'clock.

NEWS FROM FRIENDS ABROAD

Mrs. Miller writes from Columbus, Ohio: "Mr. Miller and I send our holiday greetings to all our friends in Yenching. We think and talk of you all and it all constantly; we shall have few if any more experiences to equal our stay at Yenching and Peking. Mr. Miller is lecturing constantly on China and India to all sorts of audiences, from the rural rotary club type to the most highbrow. They all sit on the edge of their chairs with interest, so eager is everyone to learn about that part of the world. Last night we broadcast the paper on Dynamic China of which you have all heard!!

Mr. Francis Chen writes from 2150 Edwards Hall, New Haven, Conn. on January 21 stating that he is very busy and that his work in Yale University is going well. He has been visiting the slums of New York City and has been deeply impressed with the conditions of poverty that he has found there and the need for those "good souls" who will give their lives in helping to alleviate this misery. He mentions that he has a speaking engagement almost every Sunday, and that he always takes with him a set of Yenching photos to show to his audiences.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Memorial Service for Dr. Sun Yat Sen. All members of the staff and student body are reminded that they are expected to be present at the memorial service for Dr. Sun which will be held in the Auditorium on Thursday morning at 9:00 o'clock. The service will be in charge of Dean Hsu. The special speaker on this occasion will be Mr. Lu Fu, an intimate friend of Dr. Sun. A representative of the Student Association will also take part. Classes will be suspended during the entire day.

Delegates to the Council on Higher Education. The University will be represented on this occasion by Dean Frame and Dean Chao who are both leaving for Shanghai the latter part of this week, Dr. Chao on Thursday afternoon in order to reach Shanghai on March 16 to attend a special conference of Schools of Religion to be held that day. Dean Frame will leave the following day. The meetings of the Council on Higher Education will be held March 17-19. Both our delegates expect to spend a few ^{days} visiting university centres in the south before returning to Peking.

NOTES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM

We are pleased to learn that David C. H. Lu, first Yenching-Missouri Fellow in the school of journalism of the University of Missouri, qualified for the undergraduate degree at the end of the first semester (the B. J., Bachelor of Journalism) and has been admitted as a candidate for the M. A. Degree.

The exhibit of clippings on Chinese affairs, taken from Western publications, which is displayed on the East side of Bashford, is being changed weekly. The Department is now receiving a representative collection of newspapers and other periodical publications, either from the publishers or through the kindness of faculty members. All members of the Yenching community, students and faculty, are welcome in our reading room and news laboratory at the north end of the second floor, of Bashford (behind the auditorium stage.)

We regret that our department secretary and graduate student assistant, Mr. Hsu Chao-yung, was compelled to resign at the end of the first semester. His place has been taken temporarily by Mr. Wang Chia-sung, the managing editor of "New China."

The annual "Journalism Week" at the University of Missouri gives a special emphasis each year to some one country, or to some special phase of public life. China is to be featured this year. Dr. C. C. Wu, Chinese Minister at Washington, will be the guest of honor and will dedicate the two stone gate lions which were given to the school of journalism there by Dr. H. H. K'ung. It is hoped that Dr. Stuart will find it possible to attend. Each year a gavel for the use of the chairman is obtained which has historical significance or some other unique interest. After its use during this one week, it is placed in the journalistic museum. Because of the special association between Missouri and Yenching in journalism, President Walter Williams suggested to us that we supply the gavel for this special China week. We therefore obtained a piece of fine wood from Pi Yun Ssu and the head of the gavel was carved as a replica of one of the buildings of that temple. Its interest in America will be that "it comes from the temple just west of Yenching where Dr. Sun's body lay during the years after his death and before the completion of his mausoleum at Nanking." This Department is extraordinarily grateful to Mr. James Chuan and to Mr. T'ang of the construction office for their services in obtaining the wood and in supervising the making of the gavel.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY NOTES

The Department of Biology takes pleasure to announce that at a meeting of the Department held on March 9, Dr. Ju-ch'i Li was elected Chairman of the Department for the years 1931-33.

FACULTY CONFERENCE ON TEACHING

On account of conflicts in appointments, the next meeting of the conference will be postponed one week, the conference meeting on March 26. Further notice will be given later.

REPORT OF THE FACULTY COMMUNITY CHEST

As has already been reported, the Faculty has most generously oversubscribed the Community Chest fund by a little over $200 in pledges, making the total pledged $2200. Recently two requests from the Contingency fund have been received and voted upon favourably, as follows: for the Hopei Christian Students' Union for its winter vacation preaching and social service tours, (participated in by several Yenching students and faculty members), $25.00; for the Yenching Music department free concerts, $25.00.

A recapitulation of the grants made has been requested. The following amounts have been paid or promised.

To the Yenta Relief Federation	$500.00
To the Self Help Work	350.00
To the Yenta Christian Fellowship (regular work)	500.00
To the Yenta Christian Fellowship (Workmen's Center)	450.00
To the Sick Students' Aid Fund	100.00
To the Ch'eng Fu Dispensary	100.00
To the Social Service Committee of the Students' Self Government Ass'n (for free school in Haitien)	100.00
To the Christian Students' Union (winter tours)	25.00
To the Music Department (free concerts)	25.00
Still left in the Contingency Fund	50.00
	$2200.00

The Chairman would like to remind any of the contributors who have not yet been in a position to meet their obligations in full that most of the above-mentioned organizations are expecting to receive the money designated rather soon now. There is still a considerable sum outstanding, and the treasurer (Mr. Bliss Wiant) will be glad to receive payment as soon as convenient for those concerned. Hearty thanks and congratulations are again given for the generous response to the many requests.

Some contributors have requested an itemized budget of the Christian Fellowship. This will soon be published in the annual bulletin which that organization is accustomed to issue.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE YENTA WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the association will take place on Tuesday afternoon of next week at 3:30 in the Dean's Residence. It is hoped that as large an attendance as possible will be present, as the election of officers for 1931-32 will be held.

CONCERT

The program for the concert arranged by the Department of Music is as follows:

- 1) Trio for violin, piano and 'cello--Tschaiikowsky
Mr. Croop, Mr. Stass, Mr. Andreyeff
- 2) Concerto G minor---Bruch
Mr. Croop
- 3) Miscellany
Mr. Croop

TENNIS

Central Faculty Tennis Club Tea. Certain considerations raised by members in their ballots on the 1931 officers and regulations make it imperative that a meeting be held to obtain a decision of the membership on these points. Mr. and Mrs. Nash therefore invite all present and prospective members of the Central Faculty Tennis Club to have tea with them Friday, March 13, at 4:30 p.m. Will the members who have not yet sent in their ballots please do so before that time.

PERSONNEL

The South Compound is most happy to welcome this week two new residents. The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Mei, already familiarly known among his friends as "Skeezix", was born in the P.U.M.C. on March 5, weighing 8½ pounds. Cecilia Aline Wiant arrived on March 9, nine pounds. We do most warmly congratulate the South Compound on its good fortune in having so many charming additions to its population this spring.

It is with very real regret that we are forced to say good-bye to so many members of our community who are leaving Yenching early this spring. Dr. Stuart has already left; the Learmonth's and Mrs. Holm leave for Europe next Monday, and Mrs. Porter via the Pacific the following day. We can at least be cheered by the reflection that they will all return to Yenching before very long. How we can ever hope to fill the vacancy left by the departure of the Chuan family we do not know, but we can at least take some comfort in the thought that they will not be leaving our campus until the summer.

We welcome Dr. and Mrs. Dickson and their little daughter, and hope that they will be very happy during their stay with us here at Yenching during the furlough of the Learmonth's.

THE LANDSCAPE COMMITTEE

The spring activities of this committee are already apparent in different parts of the campus. The lakes south and west of the Science buildings are being enlarged and prepared for the cultivation of lotus. The pruning scissors have been busy on a number of the trees, and those members of our community who are not interested in creeping things, may be relieved to hear that the elm trees near the paths and public places, which last spring were a swarming mass of caterpillars will be removed. Lovers of trees may be assured that this is only done in order to save the better trees which have already been planted near them. For some weeks now the Peping nurserymen have been hovering about the door of the committee office waiting for orders for shrubs, trees, etc. The committee while lamenting the loss of several of its members this spring, is very happy in the assurance that Dr. Parr will be available to direct this important work for at least another year, and in its following new members, Mrs. Galt, Miss Konantz, Dr. C.W. Luh. The committee will as always welcome suggestions and criticisms from any members of our community who are interested in landscape gardening.

NEWS FROM ABROAD

Mr. Huang Cho, on the Holt Scholarship at Liverpool, writes: "I have found my work very difficult. It is the qualitative side I am speaking of. The standard of education here is extremely high. A student without a thorough training in his undergraduate work will surely find himself in a world of difficulties. The subject I am working on is Soviet Economics. It is an extremely interesting subject to me, but owing to the fact that very few British scholars are interested in this question there have been published only a few books. Last week I went to London and spent three days in the British Museum Library for the purpose of digging materials, but to my great disappointment I have got only a dozen of books and pamphlets which have up-to-date material. Meantime, I am beginning to study the Russian language hoping in the course of a year or two I can read simple Russian works. There are at present eight Chinese students in Liverpool. The majority of them are in the School of Tropical Medicine. Mr. Chang Ying-tang has made a very good impression here. When I have found enough materials for my work and no longer have to worry about it, I shall try to be social and see more life."

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Change of Office Hours of the Administrative Offices. By action of the Faculty Executive Committee it has been decided to change the regular office hours to 8:00-12:00 in the morning and 1:30-4:00 in the afternoon. This new plan will go into effect on April 1st and continue until the end of this academic year. If this new schedule proves acceptable it may be extended from the beginning of the fall semester to October 15th.

Founders Day and the Year of Founding Yenching University. A small committee of the Faculty Executive has been at work for some time on the problem of choosing appropriate dates for the founding of Yenching University and the day on which this event in our history will be celebrated. You may be interested in seeing the full report of this committee which was adopted by the F.E.C. last week, and which contains some interesting historical data:

"The Committee, consisting of Messrs. Y.P. Mei, L.C. Porter and H.S. Galt, met and considered the problems concerned. The Chairman of the Committee submitted a number of chronological items which might be considered as having some bearing upon the problems. These items seem to be worth recording, as follows:

CHRONOLOGY RELATING TO THE ORIGIN OF YENCHING UNIVERSITY

- 1889 Peking University incorporated.
- 1889 North China Mission of the American Board decides to raise the Tungchow school to college grade.
- 1905 Organization of North China Women's College.
- 1911 Summer - beginning of negotiations looking toward union.
- 1914 Dr. H.H. Lowry makes an acceptable proposal for federation.
- 1915-16 The "Union College of Theology" began union work.
- 1916 April, the Board of Trustees is re-organized in New York.
- 1916 September (?) the Board of Managers is re-organized in Peking.
- 1916-17 The two men's colleges operated at Peking and Tungchow were controlled by the one Board of Managers.
- 1918 September, the two men's colleges amalgamated their faculties and student bodies on the site at Kuei Chia Chang Peking.
- 1919 Spring, the name "Yenching" adopted in Chinese. President Stuart takes office. Dr. Lowry publishes the "Thirtieth Annual Report".
- 1920 The Women's College becomes a part of the University.

The Committee, confronted with the necessity of choosing from amongst the above a date to be known as that of the Foundation of the University, recommends that the year 1916 be adopted as such a date. This recommendation is based upon the fact that the responsible legal and governing bodies of the new institution, viz., the Board of Trustees in New York and the Board of Managers in Peking, were re-organized that year.

The adoption of the year 1916 also tends to simplify somewhat the problem of issuing diplomas in Chinese for students who graduated in June, 1917, and in June, 1918, before the Chinese name of the institution had been decided.

As to the date set down in the University's calendar as Founders' Day, the Committee recommends that this date be the last Saturday of April. This date is chosen partly as being convenient on account of the general conditions of the weather and campus for the return of the Alumni to the University for a celebration.

Changes in the Comptroller's Office. Members of the University have already been informed of the resignation of Mr. S.J. Chuan to take effect soon. It has now been decided that Mr. Chuan will formally transfer the responsibilities of his office to Mr. Stephen Tsai the acting comptroller, on Monday, March 23. Mr. Chuan will not withdraw from the university until a week later and will be available for consultation if there are any matters which especially need his attention. During the first few weeks of this new regime Mr. Tsai expects to spend most of his time in the Comptroller's Office.

NOTES FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Among the recent studies made by the Registrar's Office is a Comparative Study of Grading by Instructors which seems to have stimulated some discussion among the faculty. Members interested may apply for a copy from Mr. Ti in the Office as long as the supply lasts.

The trio, composed of Mr. Joseph Croop, violinist (teacher of violin here and conductor of the Peking Hotel orchestra) Mr. S. Stass, pianist and Mr. Andreyeff, cellist (both of the Peking Hotel orchestra) has played many times to enthusiastic audiences in concert in the city. The price of admission to such concerts is $3.00. Besides the playing of the Tchaikowsky trio, there will be a universal favorite among music-lovers, viz: the G minor Violin Concerto of Bruch. "Hymn to the Sun" and "Tambourin Chinois" are among other favorite numbers to be played by Mr. Croop. Tickets are on sale in the President's Office and it is hoped that many will generously contribute more than the nominal forty-cent admission price to hear such a splendid program brought to our very door.

PERSONNEL

Mrs. Porter before she left Yenching on Tuesday asked that a Farewell message be sent through the Bulletin to all her friends on the campus, as she found it impossible to see everyone in person during the last busy days.

It is a great satisfaction to have both Mr. and Mrs. Wolferz safely home again after their prolonged stay in the P.U.M.C. The results from the last operation on Mr. Wolferz' eye have proved so far quite favorable, but the doctors have ordered him to take things very quietly for a time. He hopes, however, that he may be allowed soon to begin light hours of teaching. Mrs. Wolferz while still confined to the house and not allowed as yet to have visitors, continues to improve steadily and hopes to be able to come downstairs in a week or ten days.

Word has been received from President Stuart from Tokyo in which he sends his greetings to everyone. He reports a uneventful and restful trip so far, and the expectation of seeing the Faucetts before leaving Tokyo.

Professor Myers of Cornell University is expected to arrive on Wednesday to confer on the putting into effect of the new cooperative plan between Peking University and the Yenching University agricultural work.

ATHLETICS

Faculty Central Tennis Club. At the annual meeting last week the new officers for the year were elected: Mrs. Parr, chairman, Mr. Tsai, Hon. Treasurer and Mr. Holm, manager. The club fees for the spring season March to July will be $7.50 per person and are payable to Mrs. Henry Chou; who has been appointed treasurer; balls provided. The club has decided to erect a small shed for storing the equipment. Any new members wishing to join the club, and any old or prospective members wishing more fully to be informed of the rules and regulations, may apply to the chairman.

Yenching vs. Pekingfu. Friendly games were played yesterday afternoon on the Central Club courts between Pekingfu as represented by Messrs. Hubbard and Whalen and Yenching faculty and student teams. The honors in both cases went to our visitors from Pekingfu, who are spending this week on our campus attending the conference on The Christian Church and Rural Reconstruction in China.

Badminton and Faculty Use of the Warner Gym. Owing to the increasing enthusiasm among the students for using the Warner Gym floor during the evening hours, the department regretfully announces that the gym will from now on be available for faculty Badminton on Monday evenings only. Faculty and staff members may at all times feel free to use the gym when not reserved already.

The Boyd Gym. The first game of a series of interclass basketball matches will be held on Monday evening at 7:30, March 23. The various teams have been practising hard for some weeks.

Faculty vs. Cossacks in Basketball. In the game on last Tuesday night in the Warner Gym, the Faculty team defeated the students with a score of 33 to 24. It was a hotly contested and interesting fight throughout. In the semi-finals of these intramural-interleague matches on Thursday night of last week the Zero student team defeated the faculty 25 to 15. In the final game of this series between the two student teams Shooting Stars and Zeros, the former won the championship for the tournament.

DRAMATICS

Je Nao. A number of people have been asking whether the Je Nao is to present a public performance this spring. So far, the Je Nao is silent on the subject.

The Student English Dramatic Society last week had try-outs for a spring performance. These took place in the President's House and brought out a large and most enthusiastic group of members. Three plays have been chosen and will be coached this year as last by Miss Cochran, Miss Boynton and Mr. Parr.

The Student Modern Dramatic Club (Chinese) is going to give a performance of Tchekov's "Proposal" and Moliere's "Tartuffe" in Bachford Auditorium at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday evening, March 26. Admission will be 30¢ for each person, or $5.00 for six special seats. Tickets may be secured in Sister Hall from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. on the 24th and 25th, and from 6:00-7:00 on the evening of the performance.

CONFERENCES IN WHICH YENCHING IS HAVING A SHARE

Delegates from Yenching to the recent conference in Shanghai on People's Livelihood have brought back enthusiastic reports of the progress made in connection with these problems that are being tackled under the auspices of the N.C.C. Our members attending this conference were Mr. J.B. Taylor, Mr. Lamb, Mr. Gideon Chen, Miss Bent, Mr. Matt Taylor and Mr. Tree. When one reads the report of this conference submitted below one cannot but feel a thrill of pride in Yenching's cooperation in work of such far-reaching consequences. Dr. Kung, Minister of Commerce and Industry, who made the opening speech of the conference is chairman of our Board of Trustees.

People's Livelihood Conference. The Conference on the People's Livelihood under the auspices of the National Christian Council's Committee on Christianising Economic Relations, was held in Shanghai from February 21st-28th. About 50 delegates met to discuss in what way the Christian forces can best play their part in helping towards the aim of a better life for the masses of the people. At the opening session Minister H.H. Kung told us something of what the Government has already done, and some of their hopes and plans for the future, and this was followed by a speech from Professor R. H. Tawney of the London School of Economics. The devotional sessions on the first three days were conducted by Dr. Cheng Ching-yi, and on the last three days by Miss Kuan of the Y.W.C.A.; one of our Yenching graduates. The discussions of the Conference can be summarised under the following five main headings (1) economic needs of the masses; (2) workers' education; (3) small scale industry and cooperative enterprises; (4) large scale industry and industrial welfare work; (5) Government policy and labour legislation. On the last day the various Findings Committees presented their reports, and many suggestions for future work and policy were made. The most important were (1) To request the N.C.C. to co-operate with other organizations to foster workers' education, and to suggest that this work might best be carried on through a Workers' Institute in Shanghai. (2) To request the N.C.C. to form a committee to study the problems of small scale industry. (3) To co-operate with the Universities in the training of workers for industrial welfare and personnel management. (4) To urge the Government to enforce the new Factory Law as soon as possible.

Yenching is not only sending her delegates afield but is at the moment benefitting from influences that are coming to her own doors in the conference that is being held here this week.

The Christian Church and Rural Reconstruction in China. Yenching is happy this week to be hosts to the fifty or more delegates who are attending the conference arranged by the National Christian Council. The conference has been called so that the Christian workers in North China may have an opportunity of meeting together to discuss their plans in view of the Five Year Movement. Dr. Butterfield, the rural expert invited to China by the N.C.C. is present, and also Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Chang Fu-liang of the N.C.C.'s rural work department.

A very interesting programme has been arranged to discuss the most pressing needs of the rural communities in China, and the best ways for meeting these needs. How can the preaching of the Gospel be vitalized in the villages? What should be the church's attitude towards primary education, literacy classes, and all the subjects included under the term "education" in its wider sense - health and sanitation, improvement of livelihood, promotion of village industries, etc.? The Conference will especially discuss the subject of the "Rural Reconstruction Unit", by which the villages surrounding a market town become a real unit for community and religious life, and not a number of scattered interests. In connection with this suggestion will arise problems of provision of specialists in education, agriculture, health workers, home economists, etc., and the training of rural leaders. It is hoped that as a result of the Conference such a wide interest will be taken in the question of the Rural Church that a programme may be formulated which will guide the policy of the Christian Church in its relation with the large masses of the people who form rural populations both in China and other countries.

LETTERS FROM ABROAD

Mr. Yen Ching-yueh writes from International House, 500 Riverside Drive, New York City:

"It has been three months since my arrival in America. Before I went to England some English delegates had tried to arrange everything for me. I could never forget their courtesy. As soon as I arrived I was welcome to visit all the penal institutions in and around London.

Certainly I had a wonderful time in Russia. It is really a thrilling experience to see the gigantic Five Year Plan of social and economic reconstruction in Russia. I got an impression that all the European capitalistic countries were afraid of Russia, not because of her literary propaganda of communism, nor because of the fact that the Five Year Plan will fail, but because of the fact that the Five Year Plan may succeed. And it seems most likely that it will succeed.

I got a terrible experience in the Tenth International Penal and Penitentiary Congress. All the delegates of all the civilized countries were meeting together. They wore high stiff hats and black clothes with long tails all day long. So did I, as if I was attending a funeral service all through the week.

In America I find nine million unemployed workers waiting for immediate salvation in this richest country. All the homes of the delinquent boys are without exception in the slums of the city. I got a chance to visit the families of the paroled boys with a parol officer and at that time I could not believe that there were so many poor people in this "golden" world. My work in the school is very interesting. I spend three days in libraries and the other three days in investigation. All the people are very nice to me. Give my best regards to those who know me in Yenching."

Mr. and Mrs. B.H.Li expect to leave Madison about the 20th of May and may proceed at once to Yenching, bringing their children up from the South later. Mr. Li's thesis is finished and he is at present, besides his many speaking engagements, teaching a course for juniors and graduates in the Department of Economics in the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Li has been willing to undertake this work for Prof. Gleaser as it is in line with the preparation he is making for his own oral examination on May 1st, and also to assist the department to enable its students to receive firsthand information on the subject of the guild in China and the growth of capitalism. Mr. Li gives also some news of other friends in Wisconsin. Miss Jewell may accompany Mr. and Mrs. Li on their return to China to spend some months in continued research on the Chinese family system. Mr. H.F. Woc as soon as his thesis is completed is planning to go east for practical experience. Mr. Cho I Lai has gone to Columbia University to continue his studies close to the banking circles of the country.

See Li's letter 9/18/30 re argument re return to Y.

Journalists now active and those intending to be some day will come together for a series of lectures and discussions which should be of interest to the general public as well as those immediately concerned, and the Department is here, through the Bulletin, inviting all members of the community whose free periods allow them to take advantage of it to attend some of the meetings at least, if not all. Chairmen of departments publishing periodicals may well encourage their associates in charge of publication to get acquainted with problems and information pertaining the publishing business and meeting some of the visitors who are local managers of printing plants and newspapers. PERSONNEL

Mrs. de Vargas writes from Switzerland, asking that all mail for Mr. de Vargas be sent directly to him for the next few weeks, c/o Harvard-Yenching Institute, Cambridge, Mass. Both Mr. and Mrs. de Vargas will be in Cambridge until May 30 when they return to Switzerland. Their address after June 1, will be c/o Dr. Robert de Trey, Richemont, Lausanne.

Owing to changes in the status of Mr. Victor Martin's work in Japan, the exchange professorship arrangement adopted by himself and Mr. Faucett a year ago has been terminated earlier than originally intended. Accordingly, Mr. Martin has accepted a new position offered him by an educational institution in Osaka, and he left at the end of last week to take up his new work. Mrs. Martin and the children will remain here until the end of the semester. The Department of English has very much appreciated the work done by both Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and the whole university community has benefitted by their presence here among us. Mr. Martin has asked that his farewell greetings to all his friends on the campus be sent through the Bulletin. He wishes also to say how much he has enjoyed his stay with us and how thoroughly he believes in the future possibilities of the University. His address in Japan is c/o The University of Commerce, Osaka. Mr. Faucett has returned from Japan and will until the end of the semester carry the courses hitherto taken by Mr. Martin, after which time he will join his family who will leave Tokyo about the middle of April for their year of furlough abroad.

The Faculty Executive Committee has acceded to the request of the National Christian Council that Mr. J.B. Tayler be permitted to continue his work in Shanghai until June 1932. Mr. and Mrs. Tayler and Jackie are returning to England this summer, via Siberia, leaving Harbin June 17.

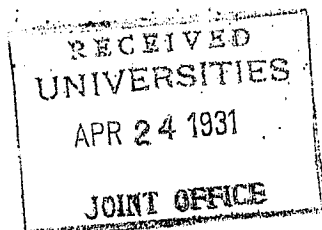

Mr. Hsu Pac-chien continues to be very busy, and his brief accounts of his travels in attending conferences and meetings of all kinds, sound like a very exhaustive Cook's Tour. He writes on Feb. 28, "I wish I could manage to send you a long letter telling you all about my experiences during the two months of January and February! Jan. 1-5 Lynn, Jan. 5-20 Geneva, Jan. 21-26 Belgium, Jan. 27-31 Holland, Feb. 1-7 England, Feb. 8-14 Scotland, Feb. 15- Geneva again. During the last two weeks I have been engaged in conference and committee work of the World's Committee of the Y.M.C.A. almost day and night. On Jan. 5th I saw Philippe de Vargas off at the station, and yesterday had a few moments to call on Mrs. de Vargas. My present plan is to stay here until the end of March when I shall go from here to Berlin. After a six-week's stay in Berlin I expect to spend some time in Prague and Vienna before I finally sail for the States. With warm regards to all my colleagues".

Mr. Burgess finds a number of books missing from his library and asks that if any members of staff at Yenching have borrowed these books they be returned to him. If you have any of the following books, or any belonging to Mr. Burgess please send them to the President's Office and they can be forwarded to him in California:

A. J. Todd "Theories of Social Progress"
Cooley "Social Organization"
Hayes "Sociology and Ethics"
Fosdick "Police Systems of Europe"
Flexner "Prostitution in Europe"
Miner "The Slavery of Prostitution"
Ellwood "Sociology and Modern Social Problems"
Brownell "Our Universe"
Gillin, etc. "Social Problems"

RURAL CONFERENCE

The National Christian Council's Rural Conferences was held at Yenching from March 16th to 20th. About 50 people attended, representing all the missions in Hopei, and there were also representatives from Shansi and Manchuria. An Executive Committee of nine people had been organized to organize the Conference with Dr. Galt Yang as Chairman, and Mr. Nei I-hsing (Conference Secretary of the Methodist Mission) as Executive Secretary. Dr. Butterfield, and Mr. Chang Fu-liang represented the National Christian Council. The Conference was opened on the Monday evening under the Chairmanship of Dr. Shuhsi Hsu, and Dr. Galt welcomed the delegates on behalf of Yenching University. A devotional session was held each morning at Yenching University. A devotional session was held each morning at 8 a.m. under the leadership of Dr. J.F. Li, and the evening devotional meetings were also led by members of Yenching University. From 9 to 10.30 each morning Dr. Butterfield spoke to the Conference. On the first morning his topic was "General Rural Reconstruction." The Conference then discussed what are the present needs of North China, so that the problem might be before us for more careful consideration during the ensuing days. On March 18th Dr. Butterfield put before us his new plan - "The Community Parish" or "The Rural Reconstruction Unit." The idea is that 20-30 villages join into one group, with one pastor as leader. The pastor should be a man who cannot only preach, but also is capable of doing other kinds of social service work. On the next day Dr. Butterfield put forward his plan for "A Rural Service Centre", which should be the headquarters for such a parish, supplying experts and services to the group. Another important suggestion of his was the "Rural Leaders' Training Centre" for the training of new leaders. These ideas were thoroughly discussed in the later sessions, and accepted in principle by practically everyone. Dr. Butterfield himself had conferences with the groups from Paotingfu, Changli, Tungchow, etc. about the carrying out of such a Community Parish. On the last day the Committees presented their findings, in which they decided to ask each Mission to try at least one experiment along the lines of the Community Parish; and also to ask Yenching and Lu Ho to co-operate in the training of leaders.

Among our recent visitors to the campus have been Professors Fairlie and Kinley of the University of Illinois, Professor G.L. Reunion of Ex-medicals. Alumni Day comes Saturday, May 2nd. It has been suggested that the Yenching Premedical Club and the Faculty join in welcoming for the weekend our Yenching medical students, now at P.U.M.C., entertaining them at dinner on Saturday evening, over-night, and at breakfast and picnic lunch on Sunday. This can be done only with the cooperation of a large number of the faculty. If you approve the idea, please save the date free from other guests and be prepared to say how many your household could take. Thank you.

Exhibition of Religious Art. One of the features of the day will be an exhibition of religious art which will be displayed in Hinde Hall. Picture must be borrowed for this and so all households who are being asked to contribute. Someone will call upon you soon, so please be ready to say how many pictures or objects of religious art you can lend for this occasion. These will be called for, carefully treated and returned in due time. Be sure to have your name upon them somewhere, so that they may not go astray.

MUKDEN, March 27, 1931

The Editor
"The Faculty Bulletin"
Yenching University
Peiping West, China

Dear Editor:

Before leaving China for Russia and Germany I want to bid a last farewell to the Yenching community to which I was so happy to belong for some months. All over the South, in Wanking, Shanghai, Hangchow, and here in the North just as well, I have met Yenching Men in all stations of life. Although I have not spent more than three months or so at the University, I felt in the last weeks that there is really a brotherhood of the Yenching graduates which is stronger than party and economic conflicts.

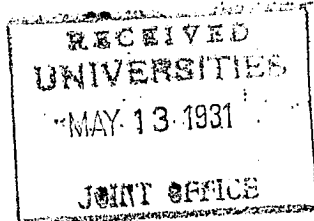

I have given between 30 and 40 lectures in the last six weeks, mostly before student groups, in government and in Mission schools, but I have not seen such a wonderful international cooperation between the people of this country and the foreign workers than in Yenching.

It is my sincere hope that German science can make a humble and modest contribution to the University, so that she become even more cosmopolitan.

With the best wishes to all my Yenching friends,

Cordially yours,

(signed) H. Rotholl

YENCHING CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Members of the Fellowship are again reminded of the business meeting which will take place after the regular Vesper Service on Sunday next, when the chaplaincy for next year, time, place, type of service, etc. will be discussed. All members of our community who understand English are welcome both at this business meeting and at the regular services.

NOTES FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE.

Mr. Mei's Office Hours. On account of school visitation appointments in town, Mr. Mei cannot keep regular office hours for the next two weeks. To avoid disappointment and inconvenience it will be advisable to have interviews on important matters arranged beforehand. Mr. Ti will be able to attend to this if you cannot Mr. Mei himself.

School Visits. Mr. Mei spent the last weekend in Tientsin on a visitation trip. Schools visited include Keen School, Hui Wen Middle School, Tientsin Anglo-Chinese College, and Nankai Boys and Nankai Girls Schools. Some 60 students from these schools are planning to enter Yenching next fall. Several of the principals wish to have their cordial wishes conveyed to Yenching.

THE YENCHING CROP IMPROVEMENT STATION

Members of the Yenching community have perhaps known that last autumn President Stuart, after consultation with the authorities of the College of Agriculture and Forestry of Nanking University, and with the Shanghai Famine Fund Committee, formulated a plan by which the expert authorities from Nanking would be invited to take over the direction of the agricultural experiment work carried on at Yenching. This plan involved the concentration of the Yenching program on plant breeding and crop improvement, especially with respect to the fundamental grain crops of North China, the purpose being to develop new strains of improved grain crops, and thus contribute to the resources of the farmers and to the prevention of famine.

This plan received the formal approval of the Committee in Shanghai and of the managing boards of Nanking University and Yenching University.

During the late autumn Professor Shen, of Nanking, came to Peiping upon the invitation of President Stuart and discussed the preliminary steps to be taken in putting into effect the new plan.

The authorities of Nanking University, looking forward to the inauguration of the new plan this spring, had invited Prof. C.H. Myers, of the Plant Breeding Department of the College of Agriculture of Cornell University, to come to China earlier than originally planned (Professor Myers had been in China some years before and was again expected to spend several months in this country as an expert in connection with the experimental work going on at Nanking), in order that he might come to Yenching early enough to take the necessary steps to put the cooperative plan into effect for the spring season.

Professor Myers arrived in March, and has been present at Yenching for some weeks. He has made a very thorough study of the work and resources of the Yenching Agricultural Experiment Station, has consulted frequently and thoroughly with the Yenching authorities, and has prepared a careful set of recommendations, looking toward the inauguration of the new plan.

Deans Sic and Reisner, of the College of Agriculture and Forestry of Nanking University, have also visited Yenching, spending a few days here in consultation with Professor Myers and with the Yenching authorities, and have given their approval to the recommendations prepared by Professor Myers. The recommendations in their final form were submitted to the Yenching authorities on Monday, April 13th, and during the days immediately following steps were taken to effect the changes in the personnel and plan of the program at Yenching.

In accordance with the plan to concentrate on plant breeding, the other projects formerly connected with the program at Yenching have been one by one eliminated. The Dairy has been separated in property and in management from the experimental enterprise, and is for the present to be conducted as a University enterprise, under the direction of Mr. C. C. Yü. The horticultural project has been transferred to the Changli Agricultural Station, under the direction of Mr. Willard Simpson. The animal husbandry project has in its disposition been divided, the poultry being transferred to Jefferson Academy at Tunghsien, under the direction of Mr. James Hunter, and the more important pure-bred animals of the swine being transferred to the Mass Education Movement, with the accompanying experimental work being carried on at Tunghsien. Our own Department of Sociology, in view of its practical program for community improvement which is being carried on at Ching Ho, has been desirous of securing some of the poultry and swine as a new feature in the work there, and arrangements have been made whereby some of the poultry, and perhaps some of the swine, will be transferred to that station. Commercial projects, such as vegetable and flower gardening, which have heretofore been carried on at Yenching, will be discontinued.

As to personnel, Mr. C. C. Yü, does not continue his services in the Agricultural Experiment Station, and will devote his time in the future to the management of the Dairy, and perhaps some other projects, amongst them the management on behalf of the University of the "Peppermint Farm". In view of Mr. Yü's long and faithful services in connection with the work at Yenching, he has been given a special honorarium in connection with the transfer to the new management.

In the future the project in plant breeding to be carried on at Yenching is to be known as the "Yenching Crop Improvement Station". The experimental work in plant breeding is to continue under the direction of Mr. Shen, who has been connected with Yenching for many years, and has demonstrated his efficiency in this kind of work.

Mr. T. S. Hsu, of the staff formerly at Yenching, also continues as an assistant to Mr. Shen in the experimental work.

The business management of the reorganized enterprise will be under the control of Mr. T. R. Ch'ang, who, like Mr. Shen, is a graduate of the College of Agriculture and Forestry of Nanking, and has recently been stationed at Jefferson Academy, Tunghsien, where he has been carrying on experimental work in plant breeding. Yenching is very glad to welcome Mr. Ch'ang as a member of the Yenching community.

The new plan for experimental work under the direction of experts from Nanking should result in a program more scientific in character than any that has been undertaken thus far. It is the hope that as the work goes forward it may be more closely, although informally, related to the Biology Department of our College of Natural Sciences. There would seem to be reasons why the staff of the Department of Biology should be interested in the experiments that are in progress, and it is thought that the members of the staff of the Crop Improvement Station will derive benefit from a closer contact with the Department. The suggestion has also been made that the experimental work in plant breeding may also have significance as a practical demonstration for students in the Department of Biology.

The academic rank of Messrs. Shen, Ch'ang and Hsu is established by the Nanking authorities as "Associate", which, according to the Nanking procedure, is the third rank from the top, and corresponds to lecturer in the Yenching staff. According to the terms of agreement, Yenching University is to treat these members of the staff, and any others who may be assigned to the work here by Nanking University, as visiting staff members of the Yenching community of corresponding rank.

Yenching Faculty Bulletin (April 23, 1931).

The present statement has been prepared to acquaint the members of the Yenching community with the plans of reorganization, and it is hoped that there may be mutual cooperation wherever contacts and association are possible.

The authorities of Yenching University wish officially to welcome the cooperation of Nanking University in this enterprise, and hope that the arrangement will prove thoroughly satisfactory and successful.

PUBLIC HEALTH IN CHENGFU

Dear Friends:

A joint public health movement in Chengfu is under way under the auspices of the Bureau of Public Safety and the Yenta Relief Federation. Mr. Stephen Tsai, our Acting Comptroller, has been appointed an honorary supervisor of public health by the Peiping Bureau of Public Safety. A Committee on Public Health composed of representatives from the village gentry and shop-keepers, the Yenta Relief Federation and the Bureau of Public Safety has been formed. Plans for cleaning of the old ditches, removing of the latrine behind the temple on the road to Lang Jun Yuan, proper disposing of garbage and waste, etc., are the immediate objects of this movement. No work can be done without funds. The villagers are doing their part of soliciting funds from the village households and shops. We are sure that you, too, want to have a share in this worthy cause. Any contribution, large or small, that you make will be greatly appreciated. Mr. Chang Hung Chun of the Department of Sociology and Mr. Tsai will be glad to receive your suggestions as well as cheques.

Yours sincerely,

FINANCE COMMITTEE OF THE
CHENGFU HEALTH MOVEMENT

FACULTY CONFERENCE ON TEACHING

As the topic for the next conference further reports will be made regarding some experiments in college teaching now being tried in American institutions. Since the Conference heard reports of these experiments last time, new data have been received regarding the Experimental College under the direction of Dr. Meiklejohn at the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Meiklejohn and his colleagues have recommended to the University faculty that the College be discontinued, and a lengthy report and statement by Dr. Meiklejohn set forth the reasons for this recommendation. It is thought that the methods and results of the Experimental College, and this last statement by Dr. Meiklejohn, will supply a very interesting subject for discussion for our Conference on Teaching.

In addition to the above, a report will be made on methods of administration and teaching adopted in Rollins College in Florida, under the Presidency of Dr. Hamilton Holt.

All interested members of the Faculty are requested to keep in mind the date of this meeting, April 23.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC NOTES

The time of the concert given by Mrs. Dunlap, Miss Vegate and Mr. Benjamin Chen has been changed from April 23rd to April 30th. The place, Bashford Hall and the time 8:00 p.m. remain the same. The program will be varied and interesting and will afford our community the last opportunity to hear Mr. Chen and Mrs. Dunlap before they leave for Shanghai. The price of admission is 30 cents, and tickets will be on sale in the President's office.

Special Notice for the Students' Recitals have gone out to all faculty members and students. The dates are Monday, May 4 and 11 and 18 at 8:00 a.m. A full announcement of the first recital will be given next week.

FACULTY TENNIS CLUB SPRING TOURNAMENT

The spring tournament of the faculty club will begin on May 6 (weather permitting). Tea will be served on the opening day and on the day the finals are played off. All members are asked to sign up before May 1st, either in the President's office or on the notice board at the courts. Drawings will be posted on May 4. If you do not sign up for the tournament your name will not be included in the drawings, so don't forget to put your name down before it is too late.

FIRST SPRING INTRAMURAL INTERCLASS
TRACK AND FIELD MEET.

Miss Hays

Roxor Pierce Athletic Field--you've never heard the name before have you? Well, we hadn't either until day before yesterday when K. A. Wee informed us "Hamilton Field" was a misnomer, and that the athletic field just east of Warner Gymnasium has now been labeled Roxor Pierce Athletic Field. It is the wish of Mr. Hamilton the donor, that this field be so named after a young athlete who was so dear to him.

Roxor Pierce Athletic Field--to get back to the original thought--is to be the scene of great activity on Saturday afternoon, April 25. Shots will be put, poles will be vaulted, discuses will be thrown, hurdles will be leapt over, racing bodies will whiz around the track. And all this action will be pulled off free of charge for the benefit of the faculty and the students of Yenching. That will be the secondary motive. The primary motive for this Interclass Track and Field Meet is to decide the winners for the various events in the intramural competition. Those winning first places and showing the greatest aptitude in their events will be chosen to represent the Varsity Track team for inter-collegiate competition in the Wu Ta Hsueh League.

Everybody likes to claim their baby is the biggest, or that their picnic is the biggest social event of the year, and even though the Department of Athletics has been guilty of making exaggerated claims in the past it is a sincere motive which causes us to assert that the meet on this coming Saturday will doubtless be the biggest and most interesting "two-ring circus" yet shown under a "big top" --and it will only be shadowed by the Intramural Track and Field Meets of the years to follow. But of course claims are claims, and no sales talk can be effective unless the prospective customers decide to take advantage of the benefits offered. And in this case it's the faculty who are filling the role of prospective consumers. You won't be bitten either if you take Saturday afternoon off to give the students a hand by making yourself conspicuous on the field.

The last few weeks have seen vast and marvellous improvement on the field. We would not be afraid to wager that it stands a good rival to any athletic field of any other school, college or university in the world having the same enrollment as Yenching. It is a unit of which all Yenching should be unblushingly proud. Maybe you are. We are. The track is a 400-meter track, the circle being 16 feet wide, and the 200 meter straight-a-way being 32 feet wide. The entire field is laid off in an orderly manner, with ample room for all the sports, and in the last week the Director of Sports, Andy Koo, has supervised the marking off of the track and the arrangement of sand pits and other facilities for the meet. A fence to keep spectators from walking on the track at the south has been erected recently. Koo has also had charge of all preparations for the running off of the meet. In fact the Department has been preparing for this track event of track events ever since last summer.

On Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons the prelims were run off and selections were made among the various classes, Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, Graduates and Special, for the finals on Saturday. No rash promises can be made but the fact that all entries for all the events have been in for over a week, and that the managers of the six class teams have been energetically grooming their men for the finals for some time is indicative of a well ordered meet. Competition is bound to be keen.

That's the story of the Intramural Interclass Track and Field Meet. It's not written up in very good form, but if you want form you'll get it on Saturday afternoon. The events are scheduled to start at 2 o'clock, and if the running off of the events is as efficiently done as all the other arrangements for the meet have been efficiently done, then it will be a great track meet. We've had our little say--the rest of the praise is for you to say after you have seen the meet--which, of course, you will.

NEW MEMBER OF STAFF

Miss Grace Chu, graduate of the New York School of Social Service has been appointed to carry Miss Wang Chieh I's work for the remainder of this academic year.

Tuesday, May 5, all classes in the university will be suspended to celebrate the first day of the People's Conference in Peking.

THE YENCHING CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

After the English Vesper Service last Sunday evening, a short business meeting was held; the main items of business concerning the new chaplain for 1931-32 and the place and time of service. Mr. Ritter was elected to act as our new chaplain, and it was decided beginning next Sunday to move the service back to Ninde Hall. As there was varied opinion on the subject of the time, it was decided to send out a questionnaire; the final decision to be made in the light of the answers received.

YENCHING 1931 ALUMNI HOME COMING DAY

The whole of Saturday will be devoted to activities in connection with this annual event, classes being suspended.

Morning

- 9:00 Special buses will run during the day to convey the visitors from the city, the first of these leaving the Y.M.C.A. to the Alumni Gate by ushers who will be on duty from 9:00-12:00. - 10:00 At 10:00 o'clock sharp the historical bicycle race will start from the Alumni Gate in which alumni, faculty and students are all qualified to compete, the one regulation to be noted is that participants must provide their own machines. The athletic department remains everyone that this provides a free ride to the Jade Fountain and back.
- 10:30 From 10:30 till lunch time there will be a general inspection of the campus. Alumni resident on the campus will act as guides, and two exhibits have been prepared which can be visited at this time.

- a) Science Exhibits for Alumni Day. One feature of the entertainment offered our alumni on Home-coming Day is to be a series of exhibits to show the work of the Natural Science Departments. From 10:00 to 12:00 a.m. on Saturday May 2 the laboratories will be open to visitors and some of the staff on hand to explain the exhibits. The Chemistry, geology, Geography and Home Economics laboratories are in C Building on the south side of the Library Court; Biology and Physics in B Building on the south side of the Administration Court, and Psychology in M Building on the north side of the Administration Court. All visitors including Alumni, Faculty, and students will be welcome at that time.
- b) Special Exhibition of Religious Art. Those who were here two years ago will remember with pleasure the very beautiful exhibit of religious pictures and objects of art which was displayed in Ninde Hall on Alumni Day. This year it is planned to have a similar exhibit. Five rooms in Ninde Hall will be arranged in the following order; Madonnas, Life of Christ, Oriental Religions, Great Men in Religious History, Religious Architecture and Sculpture. These rooms will be open all day on Saturday and Sunday, except during the noon and church hours. On Saturday morning a special program has been arranged with short speeches and music. Mr. Hsu Ti-shan will speak on "The Ideal of Oriental Religious Art", and Miss Wu P'ei Chiu and Mr. Li Lien Chih on Western Religious Art. Special Presentations. The alumni member who makes the longest trip to attend his home coming day will be presented with a framed picture of the alumni group of last year. Each member will receive a gift of a colored and mounted panorama view of the Yenching campus.

PICNIC

Please join the Medical-Premedical-General Faculty Picnic on Sunday at noon in the Tang Jun Yuan. Alumni feel much more at home in Yenching if they have a chance to meet even very briefly new faculty as well as old. As some of us will have to be at Tsing Hua at just that time, the rest of us are wanted, of whatever academic or administrative persuasion. You may either bring your own food, or phone Mr. Sailer by Friday evening that you will pay for it on arrival.

Alumni Day is a good time to be a host. Last year one of the faculty ladies told her cook to prepare Saturday evening dinner for ten, and filled up the table by circulating among the alumni during the afternoon. That is one excellent way. Another is to tell Mr. Ts'ao I that you would be glad to take guests for dinner or for over-night. The evening's entertainment is provided for at 7:30, so plan to finish early. Alumni Day comes only once a year.

TAKE NOTE--NAMING THE BUILDINGS--SPECIAL FEATURE OF MAY 2

Our beautiful buildings have long waited for appropriate Chinese names. On May 2, an opportunity will be given to all members of our community, students, faculty and their wives, and our alumni guests, to have a share in the naming of the buildings. It has been decided on this day to hold an open competition. Ballot papers will be provided to everyone, a ballot box in the central hall in Bashford in the morning and during the afternoon in the Ta Yuan, into which suggested names can be dropped during the day. The ballot paper will contain a list of the buildings to be named. Begin now to get your literary wits in working order. You must not put your own name on the ballot paper. The final names will be chosen entirely on the literary merits of the name and not of the person who handed it in. Ballot papers can be procured in the President's office for faculty members, from the Student Association for students, and will be given out to alumni members at the President's House on Saturday morning.

UNIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES

There will be no lecture next week. The last lecture of the series will be given on May 14. The speaker on this occasion will be Dr. Hu Shih. Due notice will be given of topic, time and place. Mark this date on your calendar, May 14.

JE FAO DRAMATIC SOCIETY

It has been decided on account of the rush this week in connection with Alumni Day, to postpone the regular meeting of the Je Fao next week, Friday May 8. The "Kings" will have charge of the evening which will be held at 58 South Compound (Cookingham-Cummings house). One of the new plays recently received from London will be produced. It is an 18th Century play and on this occasion a charming new actress will make her debut in the full regalia of the period. Save the date, May 8.

OUT OF DOORS

The Yenching Faculty Women's Association will hold their last meeting on Tuesday, May 12th in the form of a Garden Party. The school children, both Chinese and foreign will provide the program. All parents and other faculty members are welcome. The garden party will be held in the Lang Jun Yuan and the program will begin at 4:00 o'clock, tea to be served at 5:00. Save the date, May 12.

Arts and Letters Field Day. The College of Arts and Letters will hold a field day and picnic supper 4:30 p.m. next Wednesday, May 6. After a program of tennis matches, volleyball games, croquet, horseshoes, playground ball, and marbles (if there are any entries), the students will be the guests of the members of the faculty at an outdoor meal. The center for meeting and arranging games will be around the well in the new little park adjoining the men's tennis courts. Save the date, May 6.

GENERAL

Baby Carriage. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Koo will be grateful if some member of our community can tell them where they can procure a second-hand baby carriage.

Spring Cleaning days are here. The last visitor to the Yenching Old Women's Home found the old ladies enjoying the sunshine out of doors. As it is not possible to move the "kang" outside, they were sitting on the low stone coping near the ground. This is pretty hard for old bones. If you are looking over your wicker porch furniture and deciding to buy new this year, please give us any old chairs you are discarding. The old people will be most grateful. Notify Miss Hague or Margaret Mead and we will call for the chairs.

Faculty Going on Furlough may be throwing away old clothes. The Je Mao Property Box is used by all dramatic groups on the campus and can harbour clothes or materials however out of style. Send anything you have to Miss Bent. Whatever is suitable, can be turned into the Federated Charities Poor Relief Cupboard for next winter, and what is left over goes to the dramatic property box. Charity begins at home!

Plants for sale. The Landscape Dept. has a large number of the pink Oleander (Chia Chu T'ao) for sale in pots of various sizes, prices from .20 cts to .75 cts each. They can be seen in the Nurseries near the Faculty Tennis Courts, and anyone wishing to buy some should communicate with Mr. Parr as soon as possible.

Second Hand Child's Bicycle. Mr. P.C. Hsu's little daughter is very anxious to know of a second hand bicycle for sale. Please notify Miss Hague if you know of one.

Chinese Reading material wanted. A small Children's library has been started at Ching Ho, and is already in use. When our worker went there last week to see how the lending of books was progressing, she found several people already there reading. But they were not children. Some of the old men from Ching Ho who are able to read easy characters had found the books, and were eagerly reading the children's stories. Have you any easy books which you could let us have which would interest the older people? If so, please let either Mr. Wan Shu-yung or Miss Bent know, and we will make arrangements to collect them.

FOR SALE

Miss Boynton has the following articles for sale:

1. long chair (wood frame, cane back and sides)
1. two cot tent
1. pup tent (shelter tent)
1. new electric flat iron (German make)
1. pr. riding boots (worn twice)

ATHLETICS

We've often wondered just how much the readers of the bulletin care for news of faculty athletics--whether they find them of sufficient interest to warrant the amount of time required to peruse them or boring. But of course no one ever reads all of a newspaper, so we shan't feel hurt if you skip the "sports" section. To make the bulletin a success we have to make its appeal as general as possible--and anyway we give you the "news" of Yenching University.

Two sports events of the last week, one participated in by students only, and the other a student-faculty baseball game, opened up spring sport activities with a bang. The baseball game, which was an exciting seveninning contest, ended in a 14 to 10 score with the faculty holding the bottom end of the sack. The faculty were trailing behind like a tired dog following a racing dog until the last inning when they pulled themselves together and took advantage of the weakness of the hungry students and sent five men racing across home plate to register a final score of 10 runs. Koo in the pitchers box for the first four innings showed great style, and was ably backed up in the field by Bob Duncan in the right position, Sailer in the left wing and Homer Ing in center field. The short-stop position was held down by Mr. Lin, a student visiting Yenching from Japan. Lin also did some good batting for the Demons. J. C. Li, who you will recall was a favorite in his student days had a glove on again and was holding down the second base. Dick Ritter made history out of the third base, playing a good game and doing some good batting work. Wee played his usual go-getter game behind the bat, catching Koo. Nash went into the box for the last innings, pitching some fast balls--and a few strikes. Galt replaced Wee behind the bat, and was instrumental in saving a few student runs by his cool work. Steve Tsai came late, but got in for some record fielding and brought in a couple runs with a hunt. To stand by and watch the faculty members at play is indeed great sport, but it is even better sport to have so many come out and take part in faculty-student competitions. Thanks to Tex Eubanks in the umpires box--that might have had something to do with the score.

The Department of Athletics is wearing another feather in its hat this week as a result of the Inter-class Intramural Track and Field meet held on Roxor Pierce Athletic Field last Saturday. It surely was a great meet--even if we were one of the officials on the field. A large crowd attended, and stayed well behind the ropes instead of surging onto the field and surrounding the competitors in each event so they could hardly breathe. That is a feather in itself. The students made an excellent showing in all the various events, and altho no records were broken a number were in danger. From the faculty standpoint the crowning point of the day was the Faculty 60-yard dash. After the firing of no less than five blanks by the starter, Miss McGowen, the group of fifteen or twenty got off to a flying start. Koo came in first, Wee crossed the finish line second followed by Groff in third place and Porter in fourth. We couldn't tell who came in after that--at least it wouldn't be fair. The time, according to Bevan was 6 and 2/5 seconds.

K.A. Wee, head of the department of athletics wishes to take this opportunity to express his sincere gratefulness to the large number of faculty members, who helped in the capacities of judges, timers and officials, for their part in making the afternoon the success that it was. And as far as we are concerned we think a lot of credit is due to Wee for giving us such a good meet, and especially to Andy Koo for his tireless efforts taking care of all preparations and arrangements for both the preliminaries and the finals. It was a very well organized and orderly meet.

NEWS FROM ABROAD

A number of people have been asking for news of our absent president. About a week ago the office received a letter written on the "S.S. Empress of Canada" reporting a quiet and enjoyable voyage, a radio message having been received stating that first appointments were scheduled for Chicago. Yesterday, a letter written April 3 from New York was received in which the president writes: "I arrived here about a week ago after brief stops in Chicago and Detroit. We made a record trip across the Pacific and I arrived in Chicago in two weeks and two days after leaving Yenching, with an extra day in Tokyo. In Chicago Mrs. Potter (Jean Dickinson) was kind enough to arrange for me to meet in her home Dean S. D. Wilson, Dr. Leonard Hsu, and Messrs. Li Chung Hui and Cho Cheng Hsin. I have had one meeting with the Executive and Finance Committees of the Trustees in joint session... Jack arrived this morning to stay with me over Easter, and I shall plan to be at his graduation on May 12 at Richmond. I had a delightful evening with Mrs. Mead and her daughter at Sunnyside, and Donald Tewksbury spent last evening with me. The Yenching students here are trying to arrange a meeting for me as soon as I can find the free time. We have ample evidence of the friendly interest in the University by many people here, and there is a constantly increasing interest in China. Everyone who asks me is greatly pleased at the reassuring comments I feel able to make on the political situation in the country and the other signs of progress! The president comments at some length on the extent and reality of the financial depression existing in America at this time and the difficulty of making any appeal other than those now in operation for the immediate relief of unemployment and related issues. But with his characteristic optimism he is confident of finding a solution for our problems somehow. He sends his best regards to all at Yenching.
