PREFACE

New Features The following distinctive features have been added to the DIRECTORY OF PROTESTANT MISSIONS for 1917.

1. Typographical. All page-headings are in black-face IONIC type at the outer margin to facilitate reference.

2. Index. The alphabetical list of contractions for the names of Societies has been converted into an Index by the addition of page numbers indicating the location of the Society lists in Part I.

3. Statistical and Historical. In Part II (Geographical) the dates so far as known, of opening work in each station are given immediately following the initials of each Society. Following the Station name two figures are given, the first showing the number of Societies at work, the second following the mark /, the number of names of missionaries assigned to that station, whether present or on furlough, but excluding duplicate entries of those serving more than one Society. In these figures the CMS and CEZMS are counted as distinct, but (in general) the China Inland Mission and its Associate Missions are counted as a single Society.

4. Language Students are indicated by italics.

5. Footnotes on each page explain the symbols in use.

Distinctive Features Retained The following advantageous features are retained making this Directory the most useful in the Far East to those who have to deal with Protestant Missions.

1. Handy size.

2. Threefold arrangement—by societies, by stations, and alphabetical.

3. Historical data, giving dates of opening of stations, and date of first arrival of each missionary, so far as these can be learned by correspondence and research in Society reports.

4. Chinese names of Stations and individuals.

5. The official and popular names of each Society.

6. The chief administrative officials in the field.

7. Correct titles and degrees.

8. Absence from China during any part of 1917.

9. Postal romanization of Station names.

10. Lists of Administrative officers and committees of important Union and Interdenominational Organizations.

Order of Contents For convenience of reference the alphabet controls wherever possible. In Part I, there are six main denominational groups, the China Inland Mission, and other Societies which could not be grouped denominationally. The Societies in each group are arranged in the order of their initials; the missions, districts or dioceses are alphabetically arranged, then stations in each district by province and station, and the names of individuals in each station alphabetically, rather than in order of precedence or seniority. The presence of a name in the DIRECTORY is not a proof that the individual concerned is a missionary in full and regular standing, but that he or she is working in the employment of a missionary organization.

In Part II, all centres with missionaries assigned for residence (even if all are temporarily absent on furlough) are given alphabetically by province, city, initials of society, and name of missionary. In Part III, follows an alphabetical arrangement of all names. Part IV, constitutes a Directory of important committees and officials.

Statistical Information The total number of names of missionaries given differs in Parts I, II and III, owing to corrections received during publication. The number in Part III, which is in general most recent and accurate, is as follows:— Single men 389, Married men 1939, Total men 2328; Single women 1897; Wives 1939, Total women 3836; Grand total 6164, a net increase of 300 over the issue of last year. Of these 1095 are indicated as absent during all or part of 1917; 293 as language students. 350 names entered in the 1916 DIRECTORY do not appear in this issue. In at least 61 cases the changes in names are due to marriage. Hundreds of dates and initials appear for the first time, and 408 addresses are changed. The total changes involved in the preparation of this DIRECTORY exceed six thousand. The information making these possible was secured from over three hundred correspondents, to whose courtesy and assistance we wish to acknowledge our indebtedness.

Co-operation Desired The lists are still incomplete in some items. It has not been possible to glean accurate information regarding some societies, as to (1) The addresses of administrative offices abroad, (2) Chinese name, (3) date of beginning work in each station. With regard to missionaries information is incomplete regarding, (1) ordination, (2) Chinese name, (3) date of arrival, (4) furloughs, (5) initials, (6) titles and degrees. Not a few of these details as given are in error because of the failure of correspondents to ascertain and communicate the exact facts. Any corrections or additions will be greatly appreciated. It is hoped to add in future editions the dates of arrival of the married women, where these differs from that of the husband, and their initials, where desired.

There is the greatest difficulty in securing any information regarding some of the smaller missions and particularly of independent missionaries. Assistance in securing an improved denominational grouping will add to the value of future editions.

Acknowledgments Until this year the DIRECTORY has been compiled by Miss M. Verne McNeely, to whose accurate, painstaking work it still owes much. This year the compilation has fallen more largely to the Editor, although most of the preparation of copy has been done by Mr. Walter H. Chen who has also assisted in proof-reading.

Map Showing Distribution The Map showing the Distribution of the Missionary Body prepared to accompany the DIRECTORY for 1915 has been brought up to date by Miss McNeely and may be obtained from the publishers of this volume.

Any further suggestions for the improvement of this DIRECTORY will be greatly appreciated by the Editor.

CHARLES L. BOYNTON.

DIRECTORY OF MISSIONARIES IN CHINA

INDEX OF SOCIETIES

In the following list the name given in Jenson Type is the name under which the Society appears in the World Atlas of Christian Missions and the Missions Code. Names in Roman type only are of societies not entered in either of these books. The name in parenthesis is that which was used in the China Mission Year Book 1915, in case this differs from the form used in the World Atlas, or Missions Code, while the denominational group under which it appears in the Directory is given in italics.

The initials in IONIC TYPE indicate the abbreviations which have been adopted by the China Continuation Committee for use in future issues of the China Mission Year Book. With few exceptions they are the initials used in the World Atlas and the Missions Code. Initials preceded by an asterisk (*) are those used in previous issues of the China Mission Year Book where these differ. Those enclosed in brackets are new abbreviations adopted by the China Continuation Committee.

THE 1917 CHINA MISSION YEAR BOOK

Edited by THE CHINA CONTINUATION COMMITTEE

The main features of this year's Edition are a series of brief surveys made by well-informed missionaries covering the progress of the Christian Church in each Province during the past ten years, and its present condition. In this connection there are given the most accurate as well as the fullest information which it has been possible thus far to gather regarding the distribution of Christian Forces and various Christian Agencies at work in each Province.

There are a considerable number of other articles specially prepared by leading Chinese and foreign writers. Some of these represent extensive original investigation.

The object of the book is to present in condensed form important facts regarding the Christian Movement in China, in order to enable busy men and women

To keep in touch with the work of others. To benefit by this experience

To gain that strength which comes from the consciousness of united effort

To pray intelligently for the progress of the Christian Movement.

Dear Housekeeper:

You are paying pretty high prices for all sorts of good 'home-side' things to eat, aren't you? And prices are getting higher and higher! You want to cut costs down but it is rather hard to economize on food, isn't it? To make it harder, maybe the family income is on a gold basis and exchange robs you every once in a while.

Perhaps sometime or other you have put part of the grocer's profit in your own pocket by ordering your provisions direct from America. This was a good saving. But maybe you ordered from Chicago or some other interior point and had to pay railroad freight in addition to ocean freight. Why not put even that money in your own pocket? Why not order this winter's supply of food from the Pacific Coast, say San Francisco, and pay only the ocean freight. And you would save not only money, but time, because we could get the goods out from San Francisco much quicker than from any interior point.

We could help you save a good deal if you wanted us to. Why don't you write to us?

Yours faithfully,
Knapp & Baxter, Inc.

Remember—

The missionary is the bearer of civilization to primitive peoples.

His duty is to teach them to act right, to think right, and to live right.

Thus the interests of the Missionary and commerce are interdependent.

The missionary cultivates the barbarian to a point of receptiveness.

Commerce then helps him to practice what he has been taught, along the lines of least resistance.

The INGERSOLL watch is one of the greatest products of commerce to-day. It is not only useful, but it is instructive.

Later we will send you literature that is valuable because it is both interesting and instructive.

You can use it in your work.

REMEMBER THIS LITTLE TALK!
